Scorpions Swarm Flooded Mexico

COLIMA, Mexico (AP) — With 1,000 or more believed dead from a sneak hurricane and widespread floods, the dazed people of this smallest of Mexico's 23 states today struggled against privation and swarms of poisonous scorpions.

The disaster—Mexico's worst in recent history — covered an area on the Pacific Coast slightly larger than New Jersey with a population of about 100,000.

The violent storm that roared through the storm of Manzanillo Tuesday and the floods that followed drove thousands from homes, knocked over communication lines and overran highways, hindering rescue efforts.

The dead may include three U.S. women who were aboard a small coastal freighter apparently lost at sea.

Colima State Gov. Rodolfo Chavez Carrillo estimated that about 800 persons were killed in Manzanillo, a farming village of about 1,000 located 24 miles northwest of Colima.

Other preliminary fatality figures included: Manzanillo, 74; Tecoman, 16; Chihuahua, in adjoining Jalisco state, 14; Coahuayama, in Michoacan state, 7.

The federal government officially put the known dead at 438 but conceded that many hundreds were missing.

The navy announced that 21 of 38 persons who had been aboard the 1,800-ton freighter Sinaloa were missing. The navy report did not say whether the rescued included the three American women passengers—Lucille Pette, 55, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and Margaret Gower, 43, and her mother Viva Whaley Harris, 63, both of Acapulco and formerly of San Bernardino, Calif.

Emergency appeals for food, clothing and medicine continued throughout most of the disaster area despite 'round-the-clock supply drops by all available planes and helicopters.

There were urgent calls for vaccine against the deadly sting of scorpions—driven from their nests in flood-crumbled adobe walls. "Thousands of persons have been stung and need inoculations," Gov. Chavez Carrillo reported. "Scorpions are everywhere."

He reported that 100 bodies already had been buried in Manzanillo, another 100 were still to be buried and officials believed that possibly 600 more would be found in the rubble.

The hurricane fell upon an unsuspecting area. It crept up the West Coast, bypassed Acapulco and its big resort hotels, and moved on at a torpid 18 miles per hour. The Weather Bureau figured it would veer out to the west, into the Pacific. Instead, it angled sharply to the east and fell upon Manzanillo, a sleepy fishing port of about 7,000 population.

Trick-or-Treaters Are Big, Play Rough

MARION, Ohio (AP)—Trick-or-treating came early for Mrs. Carl Miley of Marion.

She opened her door Wednesday night for two costumed pranksters obviously looking for Halloween handouts. Mrs. Miley had nothing to give them, so they helped themselves to $2 and a portable record player—after gagging her and binding her hand and foot.

Mary Auten, 18, Pronounced Dead at Berger

Young Boy Friend Also Overcome by Poisonous Fumes

Mary Frances Auten, 18, of near Kingston, died of carbon monoxide poisoning early this morning.

According to Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff, Miss Auten was overcome while sitting in her boy friend's car which was parked in front of the Auten home. The boy friend, Gary Garritt, 18, Laurelville, was treated and released at Berger Hospital.

An autopsy performed today by Dr. F. W. Nusbaum of Chillicothe disclosed that the girl's death was accidental due to carbon monoxide poisoning. The ruling was made official by Dr. Leggett, Ross County Coroner.

Miss Auten was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Auten of Swamp Road, Route 2, Kingston. She is survived by nine sisters and four brothers.

THE VICTIM was brought to Berger Hospital at about 3:30 a. m. today by her father. She was pronounced dead at the hospital.

According to Deputy Dwight Radcliff, the boy and the girl were in the back seat of Garritt's 1951 model car. Garritt said the motor was running.

In relating the story to Deputy Radcliff, Garritt said all he could remember was that he suddenly became sleepy after parking the car in front of the Auten house.

He said he woke up sick at his stomach at about 2:30 a. m. and (Continued on Page Two)

4 Western States Hear Snow Warning

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A big storm that crept along the Rocky Mountains thrust icy fingers eastward today and brought heavy snow warnings to four states.

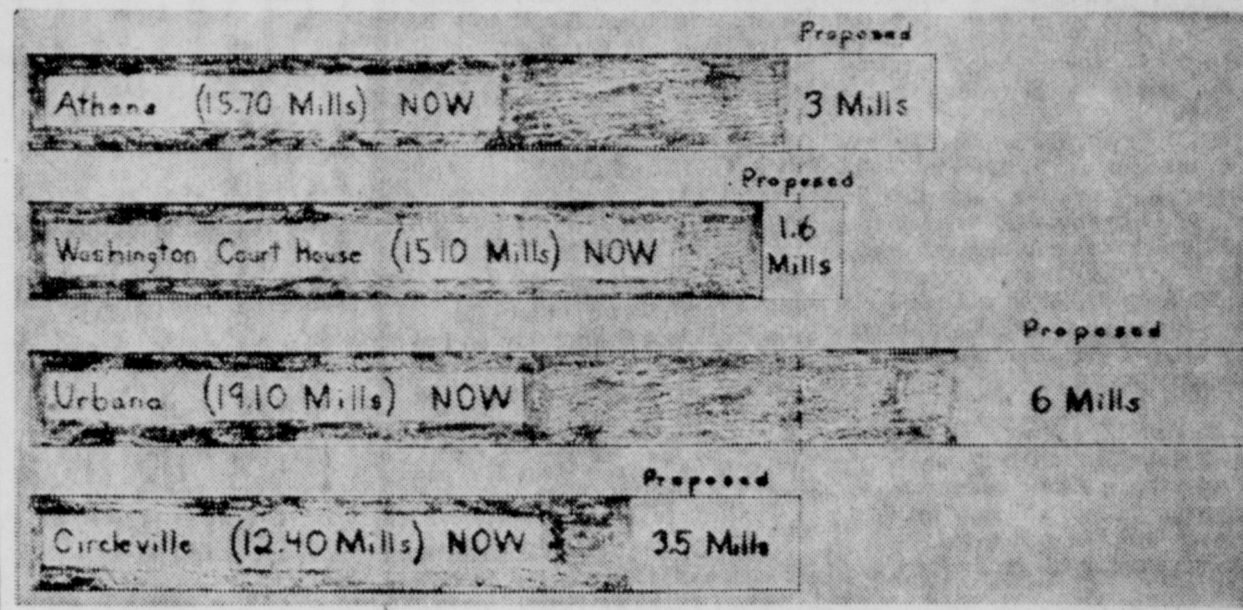

The Weather Bureau predicted up to 6 inches of snow for western Kansas, western Nebraska and parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

Rain and sleet formed an advance guard for the Canadian-spawned storm as it spilled along the eastern slope of the mountains Thursday. It brought chilling temperatures and moisture everywhere from Montana to northern New Mexico.

More than 6 inches of snow were on the ground today at Lander, in central Wyoming. The fall topped 3 inches at Denver, Cheyenne, Wyo., and in southwestern Montana.

Plains areas were expected to be hardest hit by the brunt of the storm. Increasing winds were predicted today, bringing the likelihood of drifting and ground blizzards. Stockmen and motorists were warned to take precautions.

Circleville Schools Get Less Tax Money than Most

THE FACTS — Here is a graphic description of how Circleville schools compare with other schools of similar size in the amount of taxes voted to support them. It is a wonder our children have been as well educated as they have if availability of money is a criterion. (Photo by Beaver Studio)

By ROBERT K. HARROD
Editor, The Herald

Just where does Circleville stand in Ohio when it comes to providing money for our children's education?

The city is 129th in a list of 139 city school districts, in the amount of taxes levied for school purposes. That list includes cities of 5,000 population or up.

Today a total of 12.40 mills is charged against local property owners for school purposes. The state average is 15.85 mills.

Tuesday Circleville school district voters will be asked to renew 6 mills of the 12.40 which expire January 1, and to approve an additional 3.5 mills for a 9.5-mill total.

If the levy is approved the total millage for school purposes will be 15.90 mills.

777 districts are asking for school operating levies. The average millage sought for all these districts is 5.78 mills. If most of them are approved the state average will be considerably more than the present 15.85 mills.

Thus Circleville school levies will still remain beneath the state average.

Circleville's enrollment at the start of this year was 2,728. That ranks the city 76th in the state among the 139 cities. Of the 62 cities with school population less than Circleville's, only seven have provided less millage for school purposes.

Those cities are Brooklyn, a suburb of Cleveland; Delphos, in Allen County; Hillsboro; Lockland, a suburb of Cincinnati; New Boston, a suburb of Portsmouth; St. Bernard, a suburb of Cincinnati; and Urichsville, in Tuscarawas County.

Every other city school district in Ohio has voted more school taxes for their children than Circleville.

It is apparent that school administrators have been extremely efficient in operation to provide our children with the education they have been receiving on the amount of money the voters allowed them.

There is no reason to believe they will be any less efficient in the future. However, they cannot provide an adequate education for an ever-growing school population without some increase in funds.

There is no question that a Circleville voters must provide the small amount of money sought in the upcoming election. To do otherwise is foolish. Our children would suffer.

A vote "FOR" the levy is essential to the welfare of our community.

Circleville Science Fair Sets Rules

The science and mathematics teachers along with the administrators of the Circleville City School System unanimously agreed recently to sponsor a local Science Fair to be held on Mar. 11, 1960.

Scientific or mathematics projects of any student in the Circleville city schools will be placed on exhibit. Projects will be judged and awards given.

The Fair will be open to the public. The local Kiwanis Club is assisting with the Fair and awards.

The following rules have been set up for the 1960 Science Fair:

1. The FAIR is open to all students in the Circleville City School System regardless of grade level or course of study.
2. Student projects from grades 1 through 6 will be entered in the Elementary Science Division; student projects from grades 7 and 8 will be in the Junior Division; and students in grades 9 through 12 will be in the Senior Division.
3. Any field of science, arithmetic, or mathematics may be used as a project topic. Related subjects of science, such as health, agriculture, conservation, automobiles, and home economics provide good topics for scientific projects.
4. No group projects will be accepted for judging, although they are invited and will be displayed.
5. A student may enter not more than two projects. When two projects are entered, they must be unrelated to one another as to subject.

6. All projects must have the approval of a teacher in the Circleville school system in order to be exhibited.

7. INDIVIDUAL exhibits should stay as close to three running feet as possible. Depth of the exhibit should be limited to 30 inches. Exceptional cases must be reported to the Physical Lay-out Committee prior to the Fair.

8. Each exhibitor will be required to submit a registration card a week in advance of the Fair in order for space assignments to be made.

9. The names of the exhibitor's teacher and building are to be omitted from publicity in order that all awards will be to the individual exhibitor.

10. All exhibitors will be required to explain their project to the judges and to visitors of the Fair.

11. Judging will be done by representatives from industry, business and teachers outside the Circleville city schools. They will rate all projects as superior, excellent, good or satisfactory.

12. Each exhibitor will receive a certificate of award. Top winners in each of the three divisions will receive prizes.

PARENTS, as well as teachers and students, can help make this first Science Fair a success by encouraging their children to participate, officials said today.

There are, in all probability, specialists in these subject areas here in Pickaway County who would be happy to advise students in their work, they concluded.

Teays Valley School Officials Answer Bond Issue Questions

School officials of the Teays Valley School District today answered questions concerning the proposed $1,900,000 bond issue.

The proposed bond issue is for the construction and equipping of a consolidated high school. It will cost taxpayers 3.44 mills and will run for 20 years.

The bond issue will provide funds for construction and equipping of the high school only. The operating levy asked, which is 3.7 mills, will provide operating revenues to purchase instructional materials, pay salaries and meet fuel and utility bills.

Bond issues cannot be used for operating costs.

IF THE bond issue is defeated, a less expensive proposal will not likely be submitted later. Two reasons influence this statement.

They are, one, the present proposal represents what the Teays Valley school board believes the people of the district want in a high school building and without a clear-cut expression from the people, it should not be cheapened.

Secondly, costs are rising on every side, and from present indications, the sooner the building is started, the less it will cost.

If the issue is defeated, every effort will be made to make the present buildings suffice. But if defeat is incurred, it will mean costly, unsatisfactory and inefficient operation of the schools.

It will involve extreme overcrowding, limited curricula, possible double sessions and cross-transportation. It will mean makeshift schools until a bond issue is approved.

Although high taxes will result from passage of the bond issue, there is no other present means of providing school revenue in the Teays Valley District nor is there any immediate prospect of relief.

EVERYONE concerned deplors increased taxes to provide adequate educational facilities and all feel that real and personal property are bearing too great a burden of taxes.

But the school board feels that it is some comfort to know, that even with the contemplated rise in millage, taxes in Teays Valley still will be under the state average for rural districts.

The Teays Valley building will cost more than either the Westfall or Logan Elm building because of the number of pupils. Building costs are in proportion to student population.

Teays Valley has nearly twice the pupils as Logan Elm and the building will cost almost twice as much. Teays Valley enrollment is 1,908; Logan Elm, 923, and Westfall, 1,509.

There are 17 academic classrooms in the proposed new building, including five science rooms.

In comparison with what the Teays Valley has now, the new high school building will provide the following additional facilities:

BETTER SCIENCE and laboratory facilities; ample classrooms which make it possible for students to register for what they desire without class conflicts;

Better modern language program; better physical education program in both high school and elementary grades; better opportunities for meeting college entrance requirements;

A much broader program in the upper-grade level, and additional specialized subjects added to many of the present curriculum fields, including vocational subjects for both boys and girls, commercial training and an adequate guidance service.

The speech and hearing rooms also will be used as a testing room by guidance counselors, who provide students with vital advice as to their capabilities and possible choices they should make in life.

A one-floor building plan was adopted because there is little difference in the cost or maintenance of one or two-story buildings. There also is the trend to the one-story plan that must be considered because it is much more advantageous educational-wise.

To reduce the cost of the building, which is based on cubic feet, size of building must be reduced. To reduce rooms would curtail the accommodations of the student population, which is anticipated to increase tremendously in the next five years.

THE ATHLETIC program would probably be the first program to suffer in case the school board runs short of funds due to increasing prices.

Present plans call for an athletic stadium and field, which includes the entire athletic program of football, track, baseball, softball and tennis.

The building is located on the southwest corner of the intersection of Route 752 and the Circleville - Lockbourne Eastern Road.

It was placed there because of easy and convenient access to water, sewer and gas. It is geographically located in the center of the district and the perfect center of population for Teays Valley.

There will be no swimming pool in the building. The building has been planned as economically as possible with every space utilized and still will meet the requirements of a modern-day high school building.

The Teays Valley Board of Education has performed its duty by placing the issue on the ballot. It is not up to the voters of Teays Valley to render the final decision and offers them a chance to improve their schools.

2 Bond Issues, 9 Tax Levies Face Voters

Two bond issues and nine tax levies will appear on Tuesday's off-year general election ballot for respective districts' voters' approval or disapproval.

The two bond issues are for the construction and equipping of consolidated high schools. All four Pickaway County school districts have proposed current operating levies on the ballot.

The Teays Valley bond issue calls for a $1,900,000 bond issue to be paid over 20 years. The average millage will be 3.44 mills or $3.44 per $1,000 of taxable real estate and personal property.

The Westfall bond issue asks for $1,350,000 to be paid over 23 years. The average millage is 3.97 mills per $1,000 of taxable property.

TEAYS VALLEY also has proposed a 1.5-mill renewal levy and a 2.2-mill new levy for current operating expenses. Westfall placed a 3.5 additional mill levy for current expenses on the ballot.

Circleville school system voters face a choice of approving or disapproving a 1.11 renewal and 3.3 additional levies for current operating expenses on Tuesday.

The Logan Elm School District has placed a 2-mill renewal and an additional 2-mill levies for current operating funds on Tuesday's ballot. A 2.2-mill new levy for the purchase of movable equipment in the new high school and Washington Twp. multi-purpose building also will appear on the Logan Elm ballot.

All the above levies will run for five years except the city school system levy which is slated to run for 10 years.

Westfall and Teays Valley are among 163 Ohio school districts which have proposed bond issues on the forth-coming ballot.

Circleville Twp. trustees are asking for an additional one mill tax levy for two years for fire protection of the district not included in city fire protection.

PERRY TWP. Board of trustees is placing an additional 2.6 mill request before voters for its road district, which does not include New Holland. The levy would run five years.

The Madison Twp. trustees are asking for an additional one mill for fire protection. It would run for two years.

Williamsport is placing a renewal levy of two mills for current operating expenses and fire protection. It would run five years.

New Holland will ask its residents for a renewal levy of one mill for two years for cemetery upkeep.

The Fellowship of Believers

NONE SAID HIS POSSESSIONS WERE HIS, BUT THEY HAD ALL THINGS IN COMMON

Scripture—Acts 4:32-35

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

"FOLLOWING Simon Peter's
 sermon at Pentecost, we have the first description of the early church in Jerusalem. It was a beautiful picture, and so is this,
 the second we are now to consider. Nothing but the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ could create such conditions."

I am quoting (although not exactly) the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M.
 Smith's words in his opening remarks on today's lesson in People's Select Notes.

"And the multitude of them
 that believed were of one heart
 and of one soul; neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own;
 but they had all things common."
 "And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace was upon them all."
 —Acts 4:32-33.

"Neither was there any among them that lacked; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the

feet dead at the apostle's feet.
 His wife, Sapphira, not knowing that her husband was dead, also told the lie to Peter, and she too fell dead at his feet.

"And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things."—Acts 5:11.

In his suggestions for teaching this lesson, the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes that all classes in the Sunday school might be reminded that "in every church there are different types of members—some help, some hinder. . . some throw themselves into the work of the church with all the energy and gifts they have, but some even use the church for selfish purposes. In our lesson today we have such a character as Barnabas, generous, helpful, full of wisdom, and such people as Ananias and Sapphira, who were a hindrance to the church by their selfish acts."

I think that it is important to impress upon the members of the classes that they should be truthful always. A person who gets disciples, if ye have love one to another."—St. John 13:35.

apostles' feet; and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need."—Acts 4:34-35.

Now we are introduced to a man named "Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted,
 The son of consolation), a Levite,
 and of the country of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought
 the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet."—Acts 4:36-37.

He became a familiar figure
 in the early church.

Now we will briefly tell the story of Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, who "sold a possession, and kept back part of the price," but "brought a certain
 part, and laid it at the apostles'
 feet. But Peter said, Ananias,
 why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine
 own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart?
 thou hast not lied unto men, but
 unto God."—Acts 5:1-4.

Hearing these words, Ananias
 fell dead. His wife Sapphira also died. The story is told in the Bible. It is a warning to us that we must be truthful in all our dealings.

Cost of Fires In U.S. in '58 Is Detailed

BOSTON (AP)—Nearly two million fires cost the United States
 some 11,500 lives, 14 billion dollars in money loss and a new high in the destruction of homes in 1958, the National Fire Protection
 Assn., reported.

The over-all property loss was a little less than that of the year before. The association noted the approximate 1,994,000 fires logged
 represented a reduction of 32,000
 from 1957 and a decline of $1,100-000 in losses.

But, while total losses were checked slightly, the report said,
 "more American homes went up in smoke than ever before in history."

The record shows fire destroyed
 or damaged 558,000 dwellings in 1958, causing a loss of about 309
 million dollars. These totals which are new highs, represent an increase of 28,000 in dwelling house fires and nearly 33 million dollars loss to home owners over the previous year.

'Canned' Laughter Right?

Deceptions that were practiced on some television quiz shows seem to have saddened rather than angered the public. A vigorous house - cleaning is in progress and at least one major network is beginning to wonder whether "canned" appreciation — delighted laughter, chuckles and enthusiastic applause — is "moral" after all.

In most instances it is not so much a matter of morality as of outright absurdity. Viewers hear these noise effects accompanying decidedly unfunny shows and wonder what they are about.

There may have been a time when they questioned whether their sense of humor was as sharp as it should be, but they have long since recovered from these doubts and now feel annoyed that mediocrity receives such undeserved tributes.

stamped with truth. No one ever doubted one of them.

There was a long and painful pause, then the answer came.

"Harry Truman!"

Comedian's Life Is Tragic

NEW YORK (AP)—Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy, for a dozen years one of the best-known husband-and-wife teams in show business, have decided to start parting company—but only professionally.

They jointly and cheerfully announced their impending career separation the other day.

"We're not going to be as much of a team in the future as we have been in the past," said Pete.

"Mary's enchanted with the theater, but I don't like long runs. I want to go more to writing and TV dramatic acting, not comedy."

Both pointed out that since 1947 they'd teamed mostly in night club comedy and song routines. Now they want to concentrate more on individual dramatic careers.

"Actually, I don't want to work terribly hard. I want to go to school and study archeology, foreign languages and dramatics," Mary said.

Pete looked surprised. "Almost 19 years we've been married," he marveled. "And I didn't even know she could say archeology."

But the light-hearted pair, who live in suburban New Rochelle with their two children, are still busy collaborating as a team on a couple of projects.

Both are starred with Ed Wynn in a program scheduled on the NBC-TV network on Nov. 27. And together they are writing a book, the story of their domestic life.

Pete—whose wife calls him "Peter Grim Hayes" when he's at the typewriter—is also finishing a second book, largely a collection of theatrical anecdotes.

One chapter is entitled "The Tragedy of Comedy."

"All the comedians who made America laugh for the last 50 years had tragic lives," he observed.

"My theory is that it all started in grammar school because they weren't physically attractive. So they chose another route to be admired."

"Most comedians are sad. It probably is because they feel they can never be attractive romantically," he said.

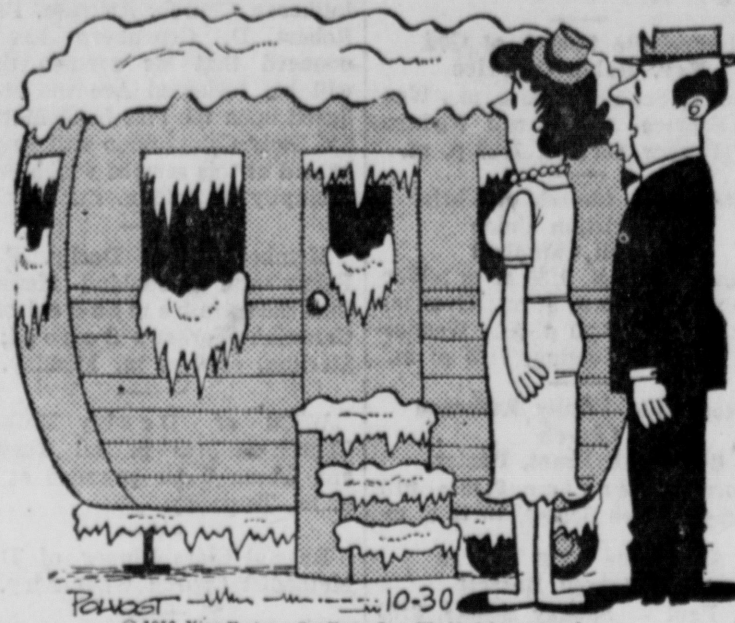

"Even the woman a comedian marries eventually comes to laugh at him rather than with him. Then, I feel, he becomes a more tragic figure than any dramatic figure—because he is so lost."

"The compulsion for him to go on making people laugh becomes almost psychotic. He's always on stage. There are people in the business world—the life of every party type—who do the same thing."

"The only cure is to stop trying to be funny all the time. Comedy is the hardest thing in the world to sustain anyway."

LAFF-A-DAY

"Helen, you forgot to defrost the refrigerator!"

Latest Medical Steps

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

New drugs and new forms of older drugs are making medical news these days. Our regular monthly review of medical advances concerns several of them.

There is a new high-potency injectable form of steroid drug for use in treating shock and other emergency conditions and in controlling a wide variety of skin diseases.

It is reportedly especially useful in cases where rapid response is desired or where long doses of oral drugs over a long period of time would be required to produce the same results.

It is intended for use in acute conditions and emergencies such as hypersensitivity, most skin conditions with an allergic component, shock which does not respond to standard measures, overwhelming infections and the failure of adrenal glands to produce hormones necessary to life.

A new antidepressant drug for treatment of endogenous or true depression reportedly produces significant elevation of mood, dispels characteristic symptoms of true depression such as insomnia, nervousness and poor appetite in a number of cases.

Development of three new cortisone-like drugs of enhanced potency was reported recently.

The compounds belong to a class of hormone drugs known by doctors as corticosteroids.

Ever since the isolation of cortisone 10 years ago, chemists throughout the world have been seeking the ideal corticosteroid, one with great potency in controlling inflammation and with no adverse side effects.

Another new drug is reported successful in relieving muscle and joint pain. The compound is a combination of muscle relaxant and pain reliever.

In some ways it appears to modify the central perception of pain. It differs from morphine, however, in that it does not interfere with the body's natural defense mechanisms.

The drug has been used for treatment of cerebral palsy. Of course, it is available only through a doctor's prescription and should be used only under his guidance.

Question and Answer

Mrs. G. R. H.: Can you tell me how to prevent jealousy in children?

Answer: Jealousy in children can usually be minimized by treating the children equally and making every effort to avoid favoritism or special affection for any child. Usually this is a passing phase. In many cases the parents are at fault consciously or unconsciously. In severe cases, psychiatric consultation may be needed.

Top Men Should Be Teaching

Young people today, as ever, are problems to their parents, but for other reasons than formerly. Each generation makes its own confusions. In the 1930's, some became Communists and others New Dealers, mild reformers and seekers for social justice.

Today, there are squares with their noses to the grindstone, who, having despaired of doing much to this world, seek out its physical composition. There are the long hair and short hair musicians who eschew politics and economics but go far back to Bach to justify their imaginative cacophony. There are Beatniks and anti-Beatniks, both of whom are nihilistic in their perceptions—young people who want nothing but take everything that comes their way. Then there is the rather conservative person, one of whom writes to me as follows:

"...Today there is no commonly accepted set of values in this country on any subject whatsoever. 'Freedom' of thought and expression have been so absurdly over-emphasized that one is a square if one doesn't preface every opinion with a long line of maybes. Even scientific textbooks are being written this way."

"The only sin today, in academic circles, is having a partially closed mind. Yet disagree with a professor over some minor point of his pet theory, and you end up with an 'F'. This is also confusing. What did you go to college for? To learn something, or to learn how to think? Ask any honest looking student of today and he will answer that his only interest in school is passing the next test, no matter how much of a hypocrite he has to be to do so. Tough life, isn't it?"

This complaint I hear on all sides. An "A" student got a "D" on a test because she did not accept her instructor's point of view on a matter concerning which her father is a well-known expert. The instructor is not and could not be expert, but the instructor had the job and could do the marking. In my opinion, that instructor was a fool.

I was talking to a young lady who was saying things that she did not believe to be true. I asked her why. She replied that she did not dare get mixed up because if she did not parrot her professor she would get a bad mark. I suggested some well-established reading to another student; she replied that outside reading might confuse her and she would flunk her test.

The real problem here is not intellectual bigotry but physical and mental laziness. The instructor, having worked out the questions and the answers (sometimes it is done by a committee), does not want to be challenged by novelty, by the student who thinks things out for himself, who reaches another conclusion. Perhaps the instructor is not intelligent enough to capture a new idea or a new method.

For one of the greatest faults of our educational system, particularly in the best colleges and universities, is that the very top men usually devote themselves to research, or to money-making as experts, or to writing and re-writing textbooks. If they teach at all, it is to graduate students who do not really need such mighty men.

The great minds should teach freshmen, so that these boys and girls get an inspiring start. Often freshmen are taught by teachers who are intellectually not yet dry behind the ears, who are either working for a Ph.D. or

Who suffers? The student is discouraged, disheartened, robbed. If a student comes from an excellent secondary school, the freshman year seems such a waste, for everything is repetitious and not as well taught. Of course, the young instructor has to start somewhere and to college administrators, it is probably regarded as sound for him to start at the bottom.

But the bottom is where the student should be most inspired to move forward, should learn work methods, and should learn how to think. To think well, it is necessary to debate, to argue, to fall on one's face intellectually. It is necessary to discover that wisdom requires enormous knowledge to support its conclusions. A freshman does not get it from another kid who is called an instructor.

A Republican committee has recommended that party goals be expressed in a "dynamic" manner. They don't know who they like, yet, but they know where.

The committee's report is a four-installment program outlining long-range policies. It can be summarized in two words: Stay in!

Middletown To Abandon Colorful Mall

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Middletown is abandoning its downtown pedestrian shopping mall but it may be restored permanently later.

The mall, from which vehicular traffic was banned, was set up the first of September on a 30-day trial period which later was extended until Nov. 1.

The city commissioners agreed to abandon it on suggestion of the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce which had proposed the mall.

A long-range planning program suggested by the merchants would call for improvements in public and private transportation, construction of roads around the central downtown area for through traffic, additional parking facilities, removal of blighted areas and solution of the problem of servicing and supplying stores as well as establishment of a permanent mall.

City officials said the principal objection to the mall was the parking problem.

Right now, Nixon is considered ahead of Rockefeller. On only an expense account, too.

But the vice presidency has always been a handicap for getting into the White House. After all, the voters get to know a vice president pretty well.

Michigan GOP, Williams Plan Joint Program

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Republican leaders of the Michigan Legislature have agreed to share responsibility for working out an emergency tax program to solve the state's latest cash crisis.

The crisis was brought on by a State Supreme Court decision last week invalidating a one per cent use tax which the Legislature added to Michigan's three per cent sales tax.

Williams and 20 legislative leaders conferred for an hour and a half Tuesday in an attempt to get started on a stopgap tax program. All they could agree on was a pledge of mutual responsibility.

This was interpreted to mean that any tax plan adopted would be regarded as a bipartisan creation.

The conference made no headway in shaping a specific tax program.

The dispute between the governor and Republican legislative leaders has centered on the governor's demand for a tax on personal income and corporation profits, and Republican insistence on an increase in the sales tax.

Utah Young GOP Vote Embarrasses Governor

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Utah Gov. George D. Clyde, a Republican, and former GOP Congressman William A. Dawson addressed a small group of Young Republicans.

After the speeches, the Young Republicans were polled on their choice of a governor.

The other 13 went to former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, who left the party in 1956 after he lost the nomination to Clyde in a party convention.

Mrs. F. C. Leasure entertained her family at dinner last Sunday as follows: Mr. and Mrs. William Kuhlwein (Emma Leasure) and son, Jimmie, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leasure and children, Ricky and Ann of Middletown.

When the Richard Leasures returned to their home Sunday evening, they took Mother Leasure with them for a week's visit.

Mr. Marvin Mitchell, president, had charge of the meeting of the Parent Teachers Assn. Tuesday evening, opening the meeting with prayer.

The Junior Band made its first appearance of the year, under the leadership of William Russell, and played three numbers.

It was decided to make the annual dues 50 cents per member and a recess was called for collection of the same. The new by-laws were then read and adoption was voted.

It was voted to support the Community Scholarship Fund, the amount to be decided on at a later date.

MITCHELL named several standing committees as follows: Ways and Means, Mrs. Kenneth Timmons, Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, Mrs. Jack Sims, Mrs. Curt Handley, Mrs. Frank Lovely;

Program — Mr. William Russell, Mrs. Raymond Davis, Mrs. Jack Reisinger;

Hospitality — Mr. L. E. Hill, Mrs. Winston Hood;

Representative to the County Council — Mrs. Raymond Davis.

Mr. McCormick, Superintendent of Schools, spoke on behalf of the renewal of the tax levy, and Miss Jane Davis, junior, announced the Halloween Carnival to be held on Friday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Waller director of the Southeastern District PTA from Portsmouth, spoke on the benefits derived from belonging to the State organization.

Mr. William Russell showed a film on the Sixth Man, concerning the relation of school to the community.

Mrs. Raymond Davis introduced the five candidates who are running for election as members of the School Board: Charles Search, Francis Kelley, Carroll Minor, Mrs. Dwight Davis, and John A. Immell. The last one named is up for re-election.

At the close of the meeting everyone adjourned to the cafeteria where refreshments were served.

MRS. GOLDEN Minser returned to her home on Monday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Sylvia Kennedy in Columbus. While there they drove to Saint Ignace, Michigan, to see the Mackinac Bridge which is sometimes called the "Eighth Wonder of the World".

The Yo-Ma-Co Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church held a Halloween Party for their own group Saturday in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Winston Hood and Mrs. Ernest Kline had charge of decorations making use of many pumpkins and corn stalks.

One of the most hilarious events of the evening was getting into the Hall by means of a Ghost Walk, going up one flight of stairs and down another, in the dark, beset by many pitfalls such as walking over bed springs.

Arriving in the Hall, they were kept entertained by many games — most of them team relay games.

Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. John Francis won the prizes

for wearing the prettiest costumes.

The refreshments were — you guessed it! doughnuts and cider.

Enjoying the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. John Francis, Mrs. Ernest Kline, and the Rev. and Mrs. Cowdrick.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sunderland over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews of Dayton.

MR. AND MRS. Lloyd Evans returned last week from a 10-day trip through the Southern states, going down through Tennessee and home by way of Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Congrove (Peggy Evans) stayed at their home to take care of Terry during their absence.

The high school will hold its annual Halloween Carnival, Friday from 7 to 10 o'clock. As usual it will be sponsored by the Junior Class with Miss Mildred Wertman as class adviser.

The costume parade will be led by the King of the Carnival Danny Vollmar, a junior, and the Queen, Roberta Rickabaugh, a senior, with prizes for costumes. There will also be a little King and Queen, Mike Sims and Vickie Metzger, from the first grade.

There will be many games and contests; a cake auction, a flower show, a jack-o-lantern contest, a corn display, a sale of articles donated by merchants in Kingston, Circleville, and Chillicothe — to name a few attractions.

For those who come masked, there is no admission.

Guests for dinner on Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and children, Charles and Mary of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and children, Johnna and Robert, of Grove City, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and son Samuel of Kingston.

MARIS, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jende received his appointment in the Spring, and left July 7 for his assignment. As anticipated, it is a rugged life, but Maris seems to have what it takes.

Mrs. James Stewart Jr. and Mrs. Albert Kerns Jr. were among the number who attended the Ruth Lyons show in Columbus Friday.

Mrs. Lois Jones was dismissed from Berger Hospital, Tuesday, after receiving medical treatment there for several days.

Skin Disorder Cure Is Seen In New Pills

Today, says Dr. J. L. Pipkin, a dermatologist of San Antonio, Tex., such skin disorders can be cured in a few days at a cost of about $20 for pills.

The medicine is griseofulvin, a new drug for fungus diseases. Pipkin and others among more than 200 physicians from the United States and 11 foreign countries described it today as the greatest medical discovery since penicillin.

The physicians were here to attend a symposium sponsored by the University of Miami. A year ago, Dr. Harvey Blank of the university first gave griseofulvin to a human patient and got a cure after all else had failed.

His announcement that he had cured 30 patients without a failure and without any unfavorable reaction caused a sensation.

Given in pill form, griseofulvin has shown such dramatic results that Johnson & Johnson's laboratories has gone into mass production to satisfy the demand. The drug is available only by prescription.

meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Garden Club which met at the home of the president, Miss Gertrude Senff, on Monday evening. Mrs. F. B. Mowery was assisting hostess. One guest, Mrs. Mary Edwards of Chillicothe, was also welcomed.

New program booklets were distributed by Mrs. Marvin Jones, the chairman of the program committee. Miss Senff gave to each member a garden note book, in which they may keep interesting items during the year.

There was an exhibit of Autumn Witchcraft which was an arrangement in autumn colors brought by the members. Winners in this display were 1. L. E. Hill, 2. Mrs. L. E. Hill and 3. Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Jones and Mr. Hill then conducted an analysis of each arrangement explaining the good and weak points in each, according to the accepted method of scoring.

A silent plant auction was held, to which the members had contributed plants. They were especially fortunate in receiving a number of plants donated by Mrs. Mowery who is leaving soon for Florida.

A dessert course was served by the hostesses. On each tray was a tiny wax pumpkin filled with varicolored small chrysanthemum blooms and evergreen.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Put Shoe on Other Foot

DEAR ABBY: We are two girls with a problem. There is this girl at school who has a terrible reputation. And she won't leave us alone. Everywhere we go she is right behind us. She hangs around our locker and tries to eat lunch with us.

It is causing us to lose all our friends because people are beginning to think we are just like her. We don't want to hurt her feelings because she hasn't any friends. Please help us. We are all 14.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Be kind to her. She needs it. Showing this unfortunate girl common courtesy when she latches onto you will not damage your reputations. It is not necessary to cultivate her friendship outside of school. But when she seeks you out, treat her as you would want to be treated if you were in her unhappy shoes.

DEAR ABBY: What is the matter with our young people today? I never forget the young people in our family on birthdays, confirmations and all special occasions. I don't expect them to reciprocate because many of them cannot afford to—but it is too much to expect a "thank you" note?

After a lapse of much time, I usually wind up writing to find out if they ever received my gift. Then I get a letter from their parents asking me to please forgive the young folks because they are "so busy." Would you please give me your opinion of this?

—DISGUSTED RELATIVE

DEAR DISGUSTED: No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks. Anyone who is old enough to print his name can sign a "thank you" note. If parents took the time and effort to teach their children this courtesy when they were very young they would not have to apologize for them later.

DEAR ABBY: I am expecting my first baby within the next few weeks. This is my problem:

I want to name my baby (if it's a boy) "BURTON JUNIOR" after my husband. But my husband has been married before and he already has a son named "BURTON JUNIOR" after him.

Would it be all right to have another "BURTON JUNIOR"? I suppose this would cause a lot of confusion because the first BURTON JUNIOR lives in the same block with us, but you have no idea how much I want to name this baby after my husband.

EXPECTING

DEAR EXPECTING: Name the baby something else. Your block is already "over Burton'd."

Tremendously Wealthy Lady Dies in Strict Austerity

NEW YORK (AP)—Widowed Lillian Timken, wife of one of the founders of the Timken Roller Bearing Co., Canton, Ohio, in earlier years with her husband had 13 servants.

When she died Saturday in her 24-room Fifth Avenue apartment, her only companion was a small Doberman called Stormy.

During the last decade of her life, she immersed herself day-by-day deeper into a shabby, twilight world, dust and shadows obscuring the beauty of great art treasures that surrounded her.

When the roller bearing magnate died 10 years ago, he left a net estate of nearly seven million dollars.

When Mrs. Timken died Saturday at age 78, the curtain was raised slightly to shed some light on the self-imposed austerity of a tremendously wealthy woman who nonetheless, counted every penny and boasted:

"You can't fool this girl."

The handyman in Mrs. Timken's building, Otto Winterspan, got an occasional glimpse of the widow over her last year. He recalled:

"I went into the apartment every so often and the old lady would meet me, always dressed in the same old, shabby bathrobe. There was a good inch of dust around the entire 10th floor where she lived."

The feeble light in Mrs. Timken's apartment came from begrimmed windows and weak light fixtures. Winterspan said she restricted herself to 15-watt bulbs, as against the 75 or 100-watt bulbs used in ordinary lighting fixtures.

In the apartment hung beautiful works of art of great value. She willed them to Washington and New York galleries.

"There were times when those big paintings—some of them were 15 feet long—would drop to the floor," Winterspan related. "She'd ask me to replace the plaster and rehang the pictures. There were lots of pictures there, some on the walls, others on the floor propped up against the wall and covered with dirt. . . .

"As soon as I finished my work, out I went. She just wanted to be by herself. Once I got a look at her television set. It was in a sort of den, the room where they found her dead on Saturday. Well, that television set had the smallest screen I ever saw. It was only about three inches or maybe five inches square. . . .

"There are 22 tenants in that building but I don't think one of them ever knew or spoke to her in recent years. The only people she let into the place were a lawyer, an accountant and a nephew."

A chauffeur-driven Cadillac bore Mrs. Timken on shopping trips, from which she returned with paper bags full of groceries. Said a neighbor:

"We figured it was canned goods, food that she lived on. Funny thing though, we saw a lot of that stuff go in but we never saw any of the empty cans go out. She must have saved everything."

Another who remembered Mrs. Timken was Edward Pollack, owner of a neighborhood cigar store. Every morning he had a newspaper delivered to her door, billing her at the end of the month. He said:

"One time she called me and said I charged her for one paper too many. She said she used to run a big business and she kept a record of those papers on her calendar. She told me, 'You can't fool this girl.'"

Girl, 15, Goes to Big City To Help Pay Father's Bills

BROOMHALL, Pa. (AP)—

"Dear Mom: 'I am doing this because I love you and Daddy. I know how much all these things are going to cost and I know we don't have that money that would pay for Daddy."

"So I'm going to get a job and give you every penny until Daddy is completely well."

only used them as an excuse to get out and get a job somewhere."

"Please don't worry about me. I'll be all right. Judy is coming with me. I went to confession this afternoon and I'm going to communion tomorrow for Daddy. He'll be all right and well. I'll see to that."

"Love, Ann."

Ann Shields, 15, a pretty brown-haired high school freshman scratched out the note and left it on a living room couch the night of Oct. 10. She hasn't been heard from since.

Her mother, Mary, between visits to the Bryn Mawr Hospital to visit the ailing father, James, keeps a vigil at the telephone, hoping and praying Ann will call.

Mrs. Shields said that the Judy referred to in the note was Judy Treacy, also 15, a neighbor who vanished with Ann.

"Judy called her mother yesterday," Mrs. Shields added, "and said that she and Ann were living with friends and that Ann was working in New York."

Mrs. Shields explained that her husband, a school custodian, was operated on Oct. 7. She said that part of a lung was removed.

"He had been asking for Ann," Mrs. Shields related. "He'd wished that there was some way we could get a message to Ann to tell her to come home. That we'd forgiven her."

Ashland Is Study Center For City Parking Problems

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—This north-central Ohio community of 17,000 has become the host city for delegations of mayors and municipal authorities arriving almost daily for a first-hand look at the way Ashland has handled its parking problems.

The city government of Ashland has come up with a plan that has allowed it to build four rambling off-street parking lots near its downtown business center and fight off the economic paralysis threatened by shopping centers in outlying areas without using one cent of tax money or pledging the credit of the city.

The bonds can be paid only with revenue from the meters on each of the 578 parking spaces in the new lots.

Meter revenue in excess of the $375,000 for payment of the 21-year, 4.59 per cent bonds will be used to finance additional off-street lots, the developers of the program say.

Two of the four new lots are immediately adjacent to the business center. The others are one or two blocks away. The two outlying lots can hold 294 cars and are metered to attract store clerks, professional people and others who normally would park their cars in the downtown area throughout the day. Rates in these lots are five cents for two hours, 10 cents for five hours and 25 cents for 10 hours.

The two close-in lots are metered to encourage a more rapid turnover of shoppers and other visitors to the business district. They can hold 148 cars and are metered at five cents for an hour, 10 cents for two hours and 25 cents for five hours.

In addition, one 36-car section of a close-in lot has a one-hour parking limit.

Ashland Mayor Don T. Hostetler explains that the lots are placed and metered so that the "prime parking area" will have a rapid turnover and can be used by a maximum number of shoppers, while at the same time providing adequate parking for downtown workers.

The city government is now in the process of developing a series of street extensions that will complete a parking route that will completely circle the business district and pass by the entrances and exits of each of the off-street lots.

The history of the parking program in Ashland began in 1951 when its Chamber of Commerce began a program of encouraging off-street parking. In 1955 two lots were leased and marked off for free parking.

But the supply of parking spaces was far below the demand and in the spring of 1956 Ashland merchants and businessmen participated in a local survey asking if the public would be willing to pay a small amount for parking if about 50 per cent more off-street parking would be provided. More than 89 per cent said they would.

In January 1957 City Council approved a recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce that an engineering firm be hired to conduct a professional off-street parking survey of Ashland. The firm conducted surveys in February and June 1957 and presented its recommendations in the fall of 1957.

The local real estate board assisted in this survey by making committee property appraisals. It also handled the actual options for the city after the necessary ordinances were passed.

Late in 1958 the mortgage revenue bonds were sold and construction began in April 1959. The lots were dedicated Oct. 8.

Ashland merchants report a favorable public response to the new lots after an initial flurry of concern over the additional meters. Traffic reportedly is moving more smoothly through the downtown area and the business climate is improving. Most important there is now space available in the "prime" location areas.

The city government and the merchants are taking further steps to make parking more convenient for visitors. Parking meter violation tickets are in the form of envelopes in which the fine—25 cents—is sealed and then dropped in one of many collection boxes spotted around the parking areas. The local Retail Merchants Council has purchased change-making machines which have been installed in weather-proof boxes in each of the lots.

58 Candidates Seek Twp. Posts

Twenty-four persons seek election to 15 available Pickaway County township clerk posts and 34 persons have filed for an available 15 township trustee offices in Tuesday's off-year general election.

Township trustee and clerk candidates unopposed in the election will automatically assume office Jan. 1, 1960, regardless of the election's outcome, since no write-ins are allowed in a general election except where no candidate appears.

Township officials automatically elected are:

Circleville Twp. — Harry E. Lane, 449 Half Ave., clerk; Walnut Twp. — Mrs. Faye Sowers, Route 1, Ashville, clerk, and Ernest Barr, Route 2, Ashville, trustee;

Madison Twp. — Charles McCray, Route 1, Ashville, clerk, and Wayne E. Brown, Route 1, Groveport, trustee, and Washington Twp. — Thomas L. Beavers, Route 4, clerk. All unopposed persons named above are incumbents.

Mrs. Grace M. Oesterle, New Holland, is unopposed in Tuesday's election and will automatically assume the Perry Twp. trustee board clerk's post in January.

She replaced her late husband's place on the ballot. Her husband, Kenneth Rae, died October 12. He was running for reelection.

A state statute allowed Oesterle's nominating committee to name someone in his place on the ballot. Mrs. Oesterle was named and accepted.

THE SALTREEK Twp. trustee board clerk's post is "up for grabs" due to the resignation of Robert Hinton, who was named manager of the local State Liquor Store in May and by law was forced to give up any political office.

Running for Hinton's position are Carl I. Fry, Tarlton, Charles E. Parker, Route 1, Kingston, and Francis J. Fraunfelder, Route 4.

The race for Saltreek Twp. trustee is the most heated of the county's 15 townships. Donald E. Strous, Route 2, Laurelvill, the incumbent who was appointed January 1 to replace newly-elected County Commissioner Charles Morris Jr., has four opponents.

They are E. Frank Schooley, Route 1, Kingston; R. D. Miller, Route 4; Ralph E. VanFossen, Tarlton, and Lloyd E. Spung, Route 4.

Jackson Twp. incumbent clerk, Ellis List, Route 1, Williamsport, has opposition from Charles H. Steinhauser, Route 3. Scott Radcliff, Route 3, who is seeking reelection for Jackson Twp. trustee, has opposition from Paul S. Thompson, Route 2.

Incumbent S. E. Beers, Route 2, Ashville, faces opposition from Mrs. Nancy Warner, Route 2, Ashville, for Scioto Twp. clerk. Incumbent Lloyd L. Melvin, Route 2, Ashville, opposes John Beavers,

Universalists Get Ready for Duty in Space

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Universalists were concerned today not only about creatures on this earth—but in the spheres beyond. Shaping up for the space age, the Church officially urged that any other world beings be treated decently—wherever and whenever they are encountered.

Laughter greeted the presentation of this resolution Wednesday night to approximately 600 church representatives. But they moved soberly ahead to make it Universalist policy and endorsed the "principle of international authority over the exploration of outer space."

The church also advocated United Nations membership for "all nations that will give assent to its charter provisions," including—as inferred in debate—Red China.

Only one other denomination, the United Presbyterian, has urged study looking toward seating Red China.

The resolution said that radioactive fallout imperilled present and future generations and that such tests were "part of an arms race, threatening extinction of human life upon earth."

Salesman Collapses; Auto Smashes Poles

CLEVELAND (AP)—Walter Kublick, 44, a suburban Parma salesman, collapsed while driving his car Thursday and the vehicle went over a curb and smashed into two utility poles. Kublick, pronounced dead at Deaconess Hospital, may have had a heart attack. The coroner is to rule.

19 Seek Education Posts In Pickaway County Tuesday

A total of 19 persons are seeking 17 seats on Pickaway County boards of education in Tuesday's off-year general election. There is competition for a seat on the Teays Valley Board of Education, according to the Pickaway County Board of Elections.

There is no competition for seats on the Circleville Board of Education. Candidates are Robert L. Brehmer Jr., 895 Atwater
Ave., Edward G. Grigg, 905 N.
Atwater Ave., and Robert S. El-sea, Route 3.

Elsea and Brehmer are incumbents while Grigg is seeking the seat presently held by County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis, who is not running for re-election.

No competition appears in the race for the five-member Westfall Board of Education. All five incumbents are seeking reelection.
Lack of competition in these races came as a surprise to observers close to the scene.

THOSE SEEKING reelection unopposed are: Dr. Paul E. Fenstermaker, Williamsport; Raymond Reiterman, Route 3, Mt. Sterling;
Everett Grabbill, Route 1, Orient; Howard N. Stevenson, Route 3, and Hoyt Martin, Route 2, Williamsport.

Dr. Fenstermaker and Reiterman are running for two-year terms and Grabbill, Stevenson and Martin are seeking four-year terms. All five incumbent members were appointed to the consolidated board of education in the fall of 1957 by the County Board of Education.

One challenger appears in the five-seat race for the Teays Valley Board of Education. He is Everett R. Beers, Route 2, Ash-ville.

Beers offers competition to
They are Dolphia Remy, Ash-ville; Harold Hines, Route 2, Ashville, and John A. Moss, Route 2, Ashville, all running for four-year terms.

Incumbent board members running for two-year terms are Orville Dountz, Route 1, Orient, and James W. Moody, Route 1, Grove-port. All five incumbents were named to the Teays Valley Board in the fall of 1957 by the County Board of Education.

Logan Elm Board of Education are seeking election and are unopposed. They are David H. Bol-ender, Route 4, and Orley Judy, Route 1, Laurelvill. They were appointed by the Logan Elm Board.

AN UNEXPECTED candidate filed for a seat on the County Board of Education. He is Troy McPherson, Route 1, Orient. He will face long-time incumbents, C. E. Dick, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, and Neil Morris, Route 1, Kingston.

There is a vacancy on the County Board of Education due to the resignation last year of Board president, Howard Huston, Stouts-ville. He resigned because he moved to Fairfield County and became ineligible to hold a Pick-away County office.

Since Huston's term does not expire until 1962, the board must name a replacement. Some observers feel that the board is waiting until the Clearcreek Local School District, of which Stoutsville is a part, becomes part of Logan Elm and then it will rename Huston to his former position.

sister, Angelina Emily, of South Carolina, were the first women to speak for abolition of slavery at public meetings open to both men and women.

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's statewide tour of mental institutions took him to the Athens State Hospital, where he said he found conditions generally adequate.

"They are doing well with what they have to work with," the governor said after his tour with the superintendent, Dr. Hubert H.
Fockler.

DiSalle described the Hocking Valley Hospital as one of the best institutions in Ohio—"hard to visit and hard to get help."

Dr. Fockler told DiSalle the hospital, built to house 1,120 patients, now holds 1,529. He said additional psychiatrists, nurses and social workers are needed.

"I will try to get you some help," DiSalle said.

The occasion was the first open house at the school building in four years. Some 300 parents showed up.

Just as the program got underway, the lights throughout the building dimmed and stayed dim, leaving the interior barely visible.
After the program, municipal light plant officials said the incident was caused by the failure of a feeder line.

Profit Increases
Over '58 Said Little Short of Sensational

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — With the steel strike hogging the headlines, one very cheerful note in the economy has slipped by almost unnoticed.

That up-and-down industry—textiles—has been having one of its up years.

Profit increases over 1958 are little short of sensational. Unlike many other industries, its gain held at the same rate right through the third quarter.

All of 30 companies in various sectors of the textile industry show increases over a year ago. Combined, the earnings of the companies reporting for the first nine months so far total 90 million dollars, a whopping 127.5 percent over the 43½ million the same firms racked up in the first three quarters of 1958, when three of them were operating at a loss and many others were visibly limping.

And, unlike many other industries, the prospects for the final months of this year are bright. Most textile makers and finishers say the steel strike has had little effect on sales, even in the mill towns. Retail sales of textile products have generally continued lively.

The gain in sales this year has been a prime reason why the textile industry is making such a good showing. But there are others.

Fabric prices have stiffened this year, while the cost of raw materials, especially cotton, has been less.

And more of the sales gain has been carried over into profits. This is because the industry has freed itself of the inventory surplus that plagued it a year ago, and because there has been little tendency to overproduce this year—an ailment to which the mills are prone whenever sales in one line or another perk up.

And the textile mills are now benefitting from the new equipment installed in recent years which makes for cheaper production. Also there has been a lessening of competition as some marginal mills folded during the lean period.

Like everyone else, however, the producers still have problems.

Most talked-about troubles at the moment are the imports of foreign textiles. Japanese cotton fabrics are deplored by the domestic mills because they usually carry lower price tags, reflecting lower wage scales in Japan.

Scioto To Vote On Ordinance For Zoning

Scioto Twp. residents will vote on a proposed zoning ordinance for the unincorporated portion of the township.

The Scioto Twp. trustees certified to the Pickaway County Election Board that it had created and established a township zoning commission on April 6.

The zoning commission submitted plans and maps and established rules and regulations for zoning the unincorporated part of Scioto Twp.

A hearing was held July 3 by the zoning commission and at that time it certified zoning plans and maps to the Scioto trustees, who held a hearing and adopted the zoning plans.

Scioto Trustees say the reason behind the zoning proposal is the tremendous influx of trailer courts sprouting up in the township, causing undue hardship upon township landowners and taxpayers.

Ann Sothern Fights Federal Tax Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ann Sothern, television star, says she only owes $7,120.94 in back taxes, not $722,322.44 as the government claims.

She filed an appeal from the big tax bill Wednesday in U.S. Tax Court.

The dispute involves proceeds from Miss Sothern's sale of her part ownership of a TV series.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Circleville, Ohio: Section 1. That it is hereby determined to proceed with the improvement of the east side of Pontius Lane from the south line of Lot 32 to Brink Drive, the west side of Nicholas Drive from U. S. Route 22 to Brink Drive, Moats Drive and Brink Drive from Pontius Lane to Nicholas Drive and Griner Avenue from Moats Drive to Brink Drive by the construction of curbs and gutters and Pontius Lane from an existing storm sewer to Brink Drive and Moats Drive from an existing storm sewer to Griner Avenue by constructing storm sewers, all constituting one connected and continuous improvement, in accordance with Resolution No. 35-59 passed on July 7, 1959, and in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore approved and now on file in the office of the clerk.

Section 2. That all claims for damages resulting therefrom shall be judicially inquired into after the completion of the improvement, and the solicitor be and he is hereby authorized and directed to institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to inquire into such claims.

Section 3. That the whole cost of said improvement, less a one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of intersections shall be assessed by the front foot upon the following described lots and lands, to wit:

All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specifically benefited by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions, and ordinances required, and the serving of said notices, and cost of construction together with interest on notes and bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Section 4. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in ten (10) annual installments, with interest, on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be born by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.

Section 5. That bonds of the City of Circleville shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto and notes of said city shall be issued in anticipation of the issuance of such bonds.

Section 6. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement, not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expenses of any appropriation proceeding therefor, and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest thereon, and the cost and expenses of any such award, shall be paid out of General Fund.

Section 7. That the clerk be and he is hereby authorized and directed to advertise for bids for the construction of said improvement according to law.

Section 8. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure in that the improvement described herein is necessary for the public health, welfare and safety and must be constructed at the earliest possible date. This resolution shall, therefore, go into immediate force and effect.

ins. There will be only one space for each office on Tuesday's ballot. Candidates unopposed will automatically assume office.

All mayors and councilmen of the villages of New Holland, Williamsport, South Bloomfield and Ashville have opposition.

CLERK - TREASURER George D. Hamman is unopposed. Three of the six councilmen filed. They are Archie Rawlinson, Marvin L. Cook and Warren W. Wright.

Incumbent councilmen not filing their declarations of candidacy were Harold L. Fry, Donald Lee McDill and Warren E. Rhinesmith. None of Williamsport's incumbent members of its Board of Public Affairs filed.

They are Paul E. Chester, John W. West and the person named to fill Harry Hosler's position. Williamsport's three remaining council and board of public affairs seats will be filled by write-in votes.

Ashville has competition only in the mayor's race. Incumbent mayor Richard Bozman is opposed by Vernon Luckett. Robert E. Gillick is unopposed for Ashville clerk.

Orville Ruh, present clerk, failed to file. Ben B. Morrison, village treasurer, failed to file for reelection, making a write-in campaign necessary for this position.

The Ashville village council race poses a problem to lawmakers. There are two candidates appearing on the ballot where six spaces will appear for the six councilmen positions.

THEY ARE Virgil C. Waldon and John E. Little. Six candidates for council were ruled off the ballot by the County election board for having insufficient signatures on their group petition.

They were Richard Cook, Charles W. Morrison, Chester V. Gloyd, Paul F. Smith, Jack E. Lemon and George W. Forquer. Although Waldon and Little are the

only persons appearing on the ballot, they could be defeated if five or six other candidates receive more votes than they in Tuesday's election.

This is one of the rare times that a write-in candidate can defeat a person whose name appears on the ballot. If there were six candidates on the ballot they could not lose since there would be no empty spaces on the ballot for write-ins.

Ashville's incumbent members of its Board of Public Affairs are unopposed. They are William S. Plum, E. W. Seeds and Russell P. Hoover. Incumbent councilman, Donald W. Wean, did not file for reelection.

South Bloomfield will also pose an interesting election with two candidates for mayor and 12 for the six council seats. Incumbent Mayor Harold Tosca will be opposed by Arthur Deal.

B. B. Bray filed for South Bloomfield clerk. Present clerk, Mrs. Marcella Acord, did not file her petition. Bray and Clyde Michael were incumbent councilmen who did not file for reelection.

INCUMBENT councilmen filing were Sheldon Roof, Earl Reese, Harold Acord and Burt Cook. They will be opposed by Roger Roof, Lewis N. McCain, Harry W. Neff Jr., William Riser, E. W. Centofanti, Kenneth P. McDaniel, Paul E. Miller and Donald Brannon.

New Holland also has several candidates for mayor and village council offices. Incumbent mayor Joseph H. Gooley will be opposed by Joe E. Shaw and David L. Reed.

Present councilman W. F. Gillespie filed for clerk and the incumbent, Donald E. Adams, did not declare for reelection. Village treasurer, Richard W. Kirkpatrick, is unopposed.

Incumbent councilmen filing were Howard Garrison, Clarence Brown, Jesse J. Barnes, D. H. Roth and R. L. Stewart. Their opposition will be from Coyte W. Eckle and Claude Reed.

Its Board of Public Affairs finds only two members filing for reelection. They were Richard M. Tarbill and Chris Cross. Robert Melick filed in place of Richard Doyle for the third Affairs seat.

John Wayne Is Convinced He Can Make His Own Films

BRACKETTVILLE, Tex (AP)—"I've been a star for 30 years. I ought to be able to make a movie better than somebody's relative."

This was John Wayne's explanation of why he assumed full command of one of the most expensive movies of all time, "The Alamo." He is producer, director and star of the Texas epic, being filmed on the prairie 130 miles west of where the real battle took place.

Wayne was in good, confident form as he played field marshal to the huge cast and crew working in a permanent re-creation of the Alamo and 1836 San Antonio.

"We've got it made," he grinned. "I was never so sure of anything in my life."

His assurance has taken a concrete form: investment of his own money for the first time in his film career. It's reported he plunked two million into the enterprise. Texas moneybags O. J. McCullough and Clint Murchison are in for a million or so apiece, and United Artists is putting up the rest.

"We'll spend 5 million on shooting the picture," Wayne remarked. "When you add my salary and the various deferrals, it will come to over seven. Overhead and other costs will bring it up to 11 million."

There was only one chink in his confident manner: his concern over Wayne directing Wayne.

"I can watch the other actors in rehearsal and tell them what to do," he said. "But when I'm in the scene myself, I can't see what's going on."

"I have some important scenes early in the picture and I act as a sort of commentator throughout," he said. "But the real drama of the picture is the conflict between Bowie and Travis. They get the big scenes."

Rameses the Great of Egypt boasted that he had furnished at least 19 million ceremonial bouquets and ornamental plants to temples.

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio has heretofore, by proper legislation, declared the necessity of improving the heretofore described streets by the construction of curbs, gutters and storm sewers, and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Circleville, Ohio has requested the Fiscal Officer to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the improvements to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to and the notes to be issued in anticipation of the issuance of said bonds, and the maximum maturity of such bonds and notes, and the Fiscal Officer of said city has certified to this council such estimated life as at least five years, and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as ten years, and said notes as five years; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY the Council of the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is deemed necessary to issue bonds of the City of Circleville in the principal sum of $16,578.00 in order to provide funds for the improvement of the heretofore described streets by constructing curbs, gutters and storm sewers. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each; shall be dated approximately November 1, 1960, shall bear interest at a rate of not more than 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall mature in ten years from the date of issuance.

Section 2. That for the purpose of raising money in anticipation of the levy of special assessments, and in anticipation of the issuance of bonds in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for the improvement of the east side of Pontius Lane from the south line of Lot 32 to Brink Drive, the west side of Nicholas Drive from U. Route 22 to Brink Drive, Moats Drive and Brink Drive from Pontius Lane to Nicholas Drive and Griner Avenue from Moats Drive to Brink Drive by the construction of curbs and gutters and Pontius Lane from an existing storm sewer to Brink Drive and Moats Drive from an existing storm sewer to Griner Avenue by constructing storm sewers, all constituting one connected and continuous improvement, in accordance with the legislation heretofore passed by the City Council with respect thereto, notes of the said City shall be issued in the amount of sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Seventy-eight Dollars ($16,578.00), which shall be placed to the credit of this improvement fund.

Provided, however, that the appropriations hereinabove made for the aforesaid improvements is subject to the qualification that interest at the rate of four and one-half percent (4½ percent) per annum for the period prior to the collection of assessments to be levied has been included in said amount, and the amount necessary to pay said interest is hereby appropriated for the payment thereof and for no other purpose, and the amount above set forth shall be reduced by its proportionate amount for the payment of said interest.

Section 3. That said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor, shall be dated November 1, 1959, and be due and payable November 1, 1960, shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 4½ percent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of May 1960, and the 1st day of November, 1960, and shall be delivered in such number and such denominations as may be requested by the purchaser of such notes. Proper interest coupons bearing a facsimile of the signature of the Auditor may be attached to and made a part of said notes. Principal and interest shall be payable at the office of City Auditor.

Section 4. After said improvements are completed and the cost thereof ascertained, Council shall by ordinance assess upon the benefited property in the manner provided in the legislation referring to said improvement, and heretofore adopted by this Council, the entire cost and expense thereof, less one-fifth (1-50) thereof and the cost of intersections, in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Code of Ohio, and shall authorize the issuance of bonds in anticipation of the collection of said assessments in amount substantially equal thereto, and the provisions of Section 133.31 of the Revised Code of Ohio. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds and any unexpended balances in the improvement fund remaining after the completion of said improvements shall be used for the payment of the notes authorized by this ordinance and for no other purpose.

Section 5. All assessments collected for the improvements and unexpended balances remaining in the fund, after the cost and expense of the improvements have been paid shall be applied to the payment of the notes and the interest thereon until both are fully provided for. Thereafter, said assessments shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest thereon. In the event that said assessments are not levied or said bonds are not issued, there shall be levied upon all the taxable property in the City of Circleville, Ohio a general and valorem tax sufficient to pay said notes and the interest thereon. A certified copy of this ordinance shall be certified to the County Auditor as required by law.

Section 6. Said notes shall be a full general obligation of the City of Circleville and the full faith, credit and revenue of said city are hereby pledged for the payment of both principal and interest of the note at maturity and in accordance with the laws and Constitution of the State of Ohio.

Section 7. That the Fiscal Officer of the City of Circleville is hereby directed to have said notes properly prepared and executed, to sell the same at public or private sale as provided by law, but for not less than par and accrued interest, and to deposit the proceeds in the City Treasury to the credit of the fund heretofore named for the purpose of paying the cost of said improvements, and for which purpose said money is hereby appropriated subject, however, to the appropriation for the payment of interest as contained in Section 2 hereof.

Who Do Some Collegians Gain while Others Flop?

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP) —Why do some college students succeed while others do not? This is one of the many perplexing questions of human development probed year after year by the Fels Research Institute here.

Knowing more about human beings and the factors that shape human personalities, physiques and patterns of health has been the quest of the institute since it was founded 30 years ago.

Why do some students break under the pressures of attending college? What can cause a person's I.Q. to change dramatically during his lifetime? What are the factors which influence personality development?

Four separate department staffs at the institute work constantly on problems such as these. Sometimes they find the answers. Sometimes they don't.

"We use a longitudinal program to find out what happens to a person throughout his life," explained Dr. Lester W. Sontag, director of the institute. This means that a group of core subjects are periodically checked by the researchers to find out how they have changed from one year to the next.

The 375 persons selected for the original core group 30 years ago will be human guinea pigs for the rest of their lives.

About 45 of their children have now been enlisted for the program and are referred to as "second generation Fels children." Children remain in the project until they are 18 years old. Some 12 or 15 new subjects are added each year.

Subjects originally are selected from within a 12-mile radius of Yellow Springs. However, as they grow up and move away, they may come from more distant points such as Dayton, Findlay or Toledo for their sessions at the institute.

The Fels staff is composed of about 45 persons, including doctors of medicine and philosophy, technicians, lab assistants and clerical personnel.

Researchers have freedom to express their scientific curiosity, according to Dr. Sontag. They work on various projects of their own choosing. Financial support comes from the Fels Fund of Philadelphia and the National Institute of Health.

The institute is not a part of Antioch College, but an occasional member of the Fels staff teaches a course there, and senior staff members are given faculty rank by the college.

Colonies of cats and albino rats also are used in the projects. Currently, preparations are being made to include a monkey colony in the research menagerie.

For some short-term projects, Antioch College students offer their services and are paid $1 an hour. Underway now is a project to determine how different people respond to the same emotional and physical stresses.

Students are subjected to a variety of stimuli. Their physiological responses such as heart beat, blood flow and pressure and respiration are recorded on sensitive machines.

The institute work, divided among four departments, is supervised by Drs. John I. Lacey, psychology; Jerome Kagan, psychology; Stanley M. Garn, physical growth, and Marvin Armstrong, biochemistry-physiology.

Alcoa, Steel Union Extend Contract

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The Aluminum Co. of America and the United Steelworkers have agreed to extend their contract indefinitely, it was learned by The Associated Press.

It was also learned Wednesday night that the USW is considering plans to extend contracts with the Kaiser Aluminum and Reynolds Metals companies similar to the agreement with Alcoa.

The USW reportedly has decided to extend the contract with Alcoa indefinitely with a provision that any contract signed will be retroactive to Aug. 1. Neither Alcoa nor USW officials would comment on the disclosure.

Alcoa's contract with the steelworkers expired last July 31. At that time, both sides agreed to extend the contract to Nov. 1 or 30 days after the end of the basic steel strike, whichever came first.

Lady Attorney Freed By Action of Judge

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Court Judge H. Richard McCracken today dismissed charges against Miss Cecile J. Shapiro, 53-year-old woman attorney.

An Ohio Penitentiary inmate filed larceny by trick charges against the lawyer.

The inmate, Clarence Dye, 46, of Akron, charged Miss Shapiro obtained $750 from him, promising to appeal his 10 to 25-year sentence to the U.S. Supreme Court, but never took action to do so.

The judge dismissed the charges for lack of probable cause.

ASHVILLE LOVELIES — Here are members of the Ashville High School football homecoming court. The young misses will reign over ceremonies to be held at 7:30 p.m. today on the Pickaway County Fairgrounds' field when Ashville faces Jonathan Alder. Broncos To Eye Homecoming At Alder Grid Battle Tonight

A rebounding Ashville eleven will take the field at 8 p. m. today to meet Jonathan Alder in the final contest of the season for both teams.

The battle will be played on the rough and tumble Pickaway County Fairgrounds' field. Ashville will have a double incentive for a victory over the Madison County powerhouse.

The Broncos have never defeated

ed an Alder gridiron squad or basketball five and tonight is Homecoming. The annual ceremonies will take place before the game starts.

It also will be Dads' Night for the Broncos. They will be introduced at halftime. Alder sports a 2-4 slate with wins over Elm Valley, 48-14, and Greenville, 30-12, a team Ashville blasted 30-0 last Friday.

JONATHAN ALDER'S losses have been to Madison South, 28-14; West Jefferson, 48-0; Scioto Valley, 28-6, and Mt. Sterling, 20-14, in a heartbreaker. Alder lost in the last two seconds of play after going into the fourth quarter with a 14-0 lead over Sterling.

Offensive leader for the Plain City lads is Ron Wilcox, their top scorer and quarterback. The throwing demon has two of the finest ends in the Darby Valley League to receive his passes.

They are Willis Cordial and Junior Thomas. Alder runs from a wing-T and a spread pattern from which they pass and lateral. The Plain City offense resembles in major degree with Ashville offensive attack.

Defensively Alder favors an umbrella defense — a four-man line, five linebackers and two safety men.

Ashville will be at peak strength with every man on the roster ready for their final contest of the year. The McNeal brothers, who have been cut for several weeks are back and Jimmy McNeal, the Broncos leading ground gainer with 247 yards, will be a welcome sight.

Ashville downed Amanda in a practice game this week, 12-6, to partially avenge its Football Preview loss. Head coach, Russell Gregg, feels that his squad has a revived spirit and could make it two in a row if his offensive blocking is as sharp as in the Greenville game.

Gregg said today his ball club will not run the belly series due to Alder's 285-lb., 14-year-old center who is immovable. The largest student body in the DV League boasts a 1,000 lb. line.

Canton's United Fund Hits All-Time High

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Greater Canton's United Fund drive collected $1,070,628, the highest total in its history. However, the 10-day drive which ended Thursday night attained only 97.7 per cent of its $1,105,647 goal and fell short for only the first time in seven campaigns.

Jamin Poised For Lush Trot

3 Ohio Horses Due To Test French Star

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Jamin, the artichoke-loving French horse who already has accomplished the improbable, shoots for the darn-near unbelievable at Hollywood Park Saturday. He'll try to wind up the American Trotting Classic with a second straight victory in the $75,000 event.

The 6-year-old importation won the first leg of the one-mile feature last Saturday and a second victory would conclude the series. Victory would also be the fourth without a loss in this country for the French horse—who has a liking not only for artichokes but also for red ear muffs, which he wears to shut out the noise.

Jean Riad drove Jamin in the first leg in 1:59 4-5, fastest time in the Western Harness Racing Assn. meeting—and did it racing on the outside all the way.

Mme. Olry Roederer, champion-maker who owns Jamin, arrived to see the second leg of the classic. She has never seen her pride win a race, simply because when a race is under way she steps out of sight.

Slated to race against Jamin are mostly the same horses who tried to beat him a week ago. Included are Senator Frost, the favorite last week, who ran a dismal seventh; Silver Song, Trainer Horn, Charming Barbara, Steam' Demon, Jean Laird, Darn Safe and an Italian horse, Jariolain.

Three of these are Ohio-owned. Senator Frost is the property of Wayne W. Galvin of Wilmington; Steam' Demon is owned by George W. VanCamp of Circleville; and Jean Laird is owned by Eddie Cobb of Wahsington C.H.

New Holland Recreation Plan To Be Discussed on Nov. 4

Whether or not New Holland will have a community recreation center will be a decisive question at a public meeting scheduled November 4 at the NH Legion Hall.

All New Holland residents and interested persons are invited to attend the meeting which is slated to start at 7:30 p. m.

Plans for the recreation area and park were formulated by the New Holland Lions Club. The Lions are seeking additional help in efforts to carry the program.

Officials said the proposed park would be for the entire community. Following a series of meetings already held, interested groups listed the following conclusions:

1. An 11-acre tract of land at the north end of New Holland can be purchased for $5,000. A one-acre spring-fed lake is included in the site.

2. Tentative plans call for purchase and development of the park over a three-year period.

3. The project will need the full backing of the entire community, although nearly half of the purchase price of the land has been voluntarily pledged.

4. Present planning calls for a new corporation made up of officers and directors chosen at random from the community to manage and direct the development of the park.

5. The park as planned will include picnic tables and benches, fireplaces, a shelter house, ball diamond and eventually tennis courts or a swimming pool.

ALL RESIDENTS of the New Holland community are urged to attend the November 4 meeting to voice their opinions and further discuss the project.

ing on the project include Forrest Morris, president of the Lions Club, Edwin Frazier, Gene Doyle, Dean Drake and Mrs. James Doyle.

This-Is-It Grid Game Faces Bucks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's battered and bruised Buckeyes reach the "this is it" stage Saturday.

Coach Woody Hayes' green youngsters, injured in both pride and prestige by losing three of five games, must get by Michigan State's spirited Spartans if they are to salvage much from the current campaign.

Since they entered the Big Ten in 1913 the Bucks have finished last in the league only once, in 1947.

Ohio has never defeated Michigan State in three tries, and if the Bucks bow in this one they'll skid right into last - place tie with Iowa and Minnesota at 1-3 in the rugged circuit.

Dodgers Again Sign Alston as Manager

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Walter Alston will manage the Los Angeles Dodgers again next year.

While this may not be the most astounding development, there was a time this year when Alston's career was rumored heading into eclipse.

But such speculation had long since expired by Thursday, when the Dodgers announced that the foremost citizen of Darrtown, Ohio, will be back in 1960, with a raise.

Market Keglers Protect Lead

Ward's Market increased its lead in the Classic Bowling League at Circle D Recreation on the strength of a current 20-7 record. Ward's took high team three-game series by spilling 2,682 pins.

Here are the current standings:

Today's Living Is Blamed for Heart Trouble

CLEVELAND (AP)—Modern man eats heartily, avoids physical exertion and thereby runs the risk of heart ailments, hardening arteries and other degenerative diseases, says a New York doctor.

Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, head of Winthrop Laboratories, says that despite today's easy living, man goes right on eating as he did when brawn and muscle made the wheels of the world go round.

He addressed a conference on aging, sponsored by the American Medical Assn. and state medical societies of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

Said Dr. Klumpp:

"We no longer tend furnace or carry out the ashes. We drive a block for a newspaper, instead of walking."

"Yet we are more tired than our fathers or their fathers used to be when they ran, walked, chopped wood, shoveled snow, dug ditches, pitched hay and did all the physical chores so abhorrent to the mid-century."

When a person is immobilized in bed, he pointed out, muscular and circulatory deterioration occurs in a short period of time.

For health and a long life, he told the 500 persons attending the conference, people should employ bodily functions to capacity.

Stark County Sheriff Dies At Age of 51

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—One of Ohio's best known sheriffs, Harry W. Grossglau, of Stark County, died of a heart attack Thursday night. He was 51.

Grossglau, who had suffered two previous heart attacks, was watching a bowling match in a Mahoning Road bowling alley when he slumped to the floor. Oxygen was administered but efforts to revive him failed. He was pronounced dead at Mercy Hospital.

A Republican, Grossglau was elected sheriff in 1949 and was serving his third term. Prior to that he served as a Stark County deputy sheriff and was one of the original patrolmen of the Ohio Highway Patrol.

He was a past president of the Buckeye Sheriffs' Assn. and was named the outstanding sheriff in Ohio by that group in 1954. At his death, he was a member of the National Sheriffs' Assn. board of governors.

Grossglau was a leader in getting standard uniforms and car markings in Ohio sheriff's departments.

133-Year-Old Grave Marker Is Uncovered

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Police here are puzzled by a student's discovery of a 133-year-old tombstone near the Chardon High School football field. Police Chief John Bohl said the four-foot, 300-pound slab did not appear to have been dug up from a local cemetery. It bore this inscription:

"John Collins, died Jan. 8, 1826 at the age of 61. His wife, Fannie, 72, died on August 11, 1832."

Important Test Looms for Tigers

Circleville's grid Tigers head for Franklin Heights tonight for an important South Central Ohio League test with the surging Falcons.

The Tigers may have to play without the services of Archie Ward, ace right halfback. The high-scoring speedster suffered an ankle injury in Friday's Paint Valley test and has been working without pads all week.

Ward practiced yesterday, but was slowed by a noticeable limp. To date he leads Tiger scoring with nine touchdowns and two extra points.

REGULAR Quarterback Dave Smith and Fullback Larry Hannans will be available and will be expected to carry much of the burden. Freshman Garold Dade may get the starting call at left half. Pat Rooney and Alex Cook have been working at right half, along with Chuck McDowell who may be pressed into service at both half-back posts. Back Gary Cook will be available as needed.

Tackle Dave Huffer was back at practice yesterday after being out of school part of the week with the flu. John Williams may get the call at the tackle post, although he suffered a pulled leg muscle in practice this week.

Franklin Heights, all set to observe Homecoming, will be a formidable foe for the Tigers. The Falcons did a good job in holding undefeated Greenfield to a 22-14 win last Friday.

The Falcons run from a T-formation and an unbalanced line. They pass often and rely on the power running of Fullback Bob Bapst.

The hosts will outweight the Tigers with a lineup sprinkled with returning lettermen. Last year the FH outfit downed Circleville, 8-0, then went on to gain a share of the SCOL which ended in a three-way deadlock with Greenfield and Washington C. H.

New Highway Cost Formula To Aid Small Ohio Cities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A new highway cost assessment formula will aid smaller Ohio cities and villages, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle announced Thursday.

A Highway Department directive revises the formula by which villages and cities of less than 100,000 population are charged for highway projects.

Major construction, interstate projects, resurfacing and bridge repair are included in the new rates.

The latest policy assesses cities of 5,001 to 21,000 population five including federal aid projects in municipalities. Other rates: 21,001 to 42,000 pay 10 per cent; 42,001 to 100,000 15 per cent, and over 100,000, 25 per cent.

The old formula assessed cities under 38,000 the cost of plans plus five per cent of remaining project costs. Other rates were: 38,000 to 100,000, 15 per cent, and over 100,000, 25 per cent.

The new population groupings are based on Ohio Department of Health census estimates.

The new formula for resurfacing is: 5,001 to 21,000, 20 per cent; 21,001 to 42,000, 30 per cent; 42,001 to 100,000, 40 per cent, and over 100,000, 50 per cent. The previous breakdown was 5,000 to 15,000, 20 per cent; 15,000 to 50,000, 35 per cent, and more than 50,000, 50 per cent.

The state, city and county all will share in bridge repair. The formula is the same as in major construction with counties paying 25 per cent in all cases and the state the remainder.

The villages' cost of sharing in the various categories was also set. Here it is based on funds available from the 7½ per cent revenues from gasoline taxes and license fees.

Stassen Feels Confident of Win Tuesday

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Republican Harold E. Stassen, nationally known politician, is confident he'll win the Philadelphia mayoralty race next Tuesday.

But the Democrats don't give him much of a chance. They say he'll still be running after election day. They've already held a pre-election victory parade.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower, has taken plenty of lumps in politics the last few years. But he is regarded in many circles as a sturdy contender.

The Democrats held their traditional parade and rally Wednesday night in the 26th Ward in south Philadelphia.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth, endorsed by all three Philadelphia daily newspapers, has the full backing of Pennsylvania's Democratic national committeeman, Gov. David L. Lawrence, and Philadelphia's Democratic chairman, Congressman William J. Green Jr. Latest registration figures list 531,000 Democrats and 413,083 Republicans.

Dilworth is running on his first-term record. He has repeatedly charged that Stassen is seeking to be mayor only to further his real aspiration to become president of the United States.

Stassen promises if he is elected mayor he will stop what he calls a heavy migratory flow of Negroes from the South to Philadelphia. He has charged that under the Dilworth administration crime has spread and unemployment increased.

The newsboy, Rickey Stafford, 13, gave a $5 donation to President Paul R. Stewart for the school's new science building.

Kingston Girl Victim of Gas In Parked Car

Scorpions Swarm Flooded Mexico

COLIMA, Mexico (AP) — With 1,000 or more believed dead from a sneak hurricane and widespread floods, the dazed people of this smallest of Mexico's 23 states today struggled against privation and swarms of poisonous scorpions.

The disaster—Mexico's worst in recent history — covered an area on the Pacific Coast slightly larger than New Jersey with a population of about 100,000.

The violent storm that roared through the port of Manzanillo Tuesday and the floods that followed drove thousands from homes, knocked over communication lines and overran highways, hindering rescue efforts.

The dead may include three U.S. women who were aboard a small coastal freighter apparently lost at sea.

Colima State Gov. Rodolfo Chavez Carrillo estimated that about 800 persons were killed in Manzanillo, a farming village of about 1,000 located 24 miles northwest of Colima.

Other preliminary fatality figures included: Manzanillo, 74; Tecoman, 16; Chihuahua, in adjoining Jalisco state, 14; Coahuayama, in Michoacan state, 7.

The federal government officially put the known dead at 438 but conceded that many hundreds were missing.

The navy announced that 21 of 38 persons who had been aboard the 1,800-ton freighter Sinaloa were missing. The navy report did not say whether the rescued included the three American women passengers—Lucille Pette, 55, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and Margaret Gower, 43, and her mother Viva Whaley Harris, 63, both of Acapulco and formerly of San Bernardino, Calif.

Emergency appeals for food, clothing and medicine continued throughout most of the disaster area despite 'round-the-clock supply drops by all available planes and helicopters.

There were urgent calls for vaccine against the deadly sting of scorpions—driven from their nests in flood-crumbled adobe walls.

"Thousands of persons have been stung and need inoculations," Gov. Chavez Carrillo reported. "Scorpions are everywhere."

He reported that 100 bodies already had been buried in Manzanillo, another 100 were still to be buried and officials believed that possibly 600 more would be found in the rubble.

The hurricane fell upon an unsuspecting area. It crept up the West Coast, bypassed Acapulco and its big resort hotels, and moved on at a torpid 18 miles per hour. The Weather Bureau figured it would veer out to the west, into the Pacific. Instead, it angled sharply to the east and fell upon Manzanillo, a sleepy fishing port of about 7,000 population.

Trick-or-Treaters Are Big, Play Rough

MARION, Ohio (AP)—Trick-or-treating came early for Mrs. Carl Miley of Marion.

She opened her door Wednesday night for two costumed pranksters obviously looking for Halloween handouts. Mrs. Miley had nothing to give them, so they helped themselves to $2 and a portable record player—after gagging her and binding her hand and foot.

Young Boy Friend Also Overcome by Poisonous Fumes

Mary Frances Auten, 18, of near Kingston, died of carbon monoxide poisoning early this morning.

According to Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff, Miss Auten was overcome while sitting in her boy friend's car which was parked in front of the Auten home. The boy friend, Gary Garritt, 18, Laurelville, was treated and released at Berger Hospital.

An autopsy performed today by Dr. F. W. Nusbaum of Chillicothe disclosed that the girl's death was accidental due to carbon monoxide poisoning. The ruling was made official by Dr. Leggett, Ross County Coroner.

Miss Auten was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Auten of Swamp Road, Route 2, Kingston. She is survived by nine sisters and four brothers.

THE VICTIM was brought to Berger Hospital at about 3:30 a. m. today by her father. She was pronounced dead at the hospital.

According to Deputy Dwight Radcliff, the boy and the girl were in the back seat of Garritt's 1951 model car. Garritt said the motor was running.

In relating the story to Deputy Radcliff, Garritt said all he could remember was that he suddenly became sleepy after parking the car in front of the Auten house.

He said he woke up sick at his stomach at about 2:30 a. m. and (Continued on Page Two)

4 Western States Hear Snow Warning

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A big storm that crept along the Rocky Mountains thrust icy fingers eastward today and brought heavy snow warnings to four states.

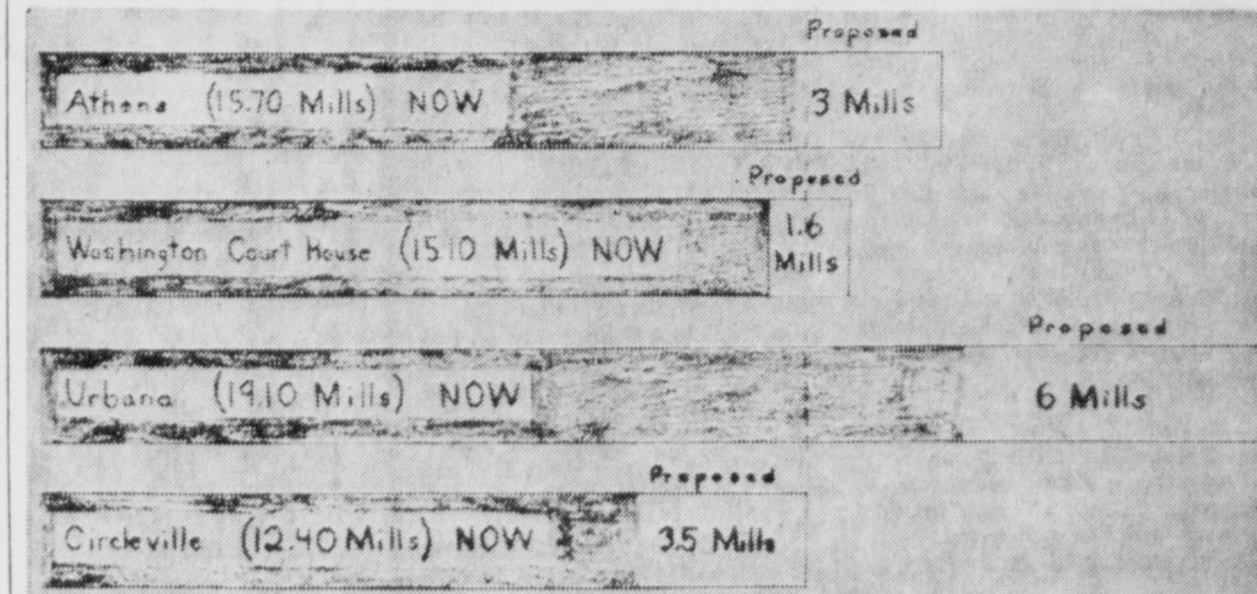

The Weather Bureau predicted up to 6 inches of snow for western Kansas, western Nebraska and parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

Rain and sleet formed an advance guard for the Canadian-spawned storm as it spilled along the eastern slope of the mountains Thursday. It brought chilling temperatures and moisture everywhere from Montana to northern New Mexico.

More than 6 inches of snow were on the ground today at Lander, in central Wyoming. The fall topped 3 inches at Denver, Cheyenne, Wyo., and in southwestern Montana.

Plains areas were expected to be hardest hit by the brunt of the storm. Increasing winds were predicted today, bringing the likelihood of drifting and ground blizzards. Stockmen and motorists were warned to take precautions.

Circleville Schools Get Less Tax Money than Most

THE FACTS — Here is a graphic description of how Circleville schools compare with other schools of similar size in the amount of taxes voted to support them. It is a wonder our children have been as well educated as they have if availability of money is a criterion.

By ROBERT K. HARROD Editor, The Herald

Just where does Circleville stand in Ohio when it comes to providing money for our children's education?

The city is 129th in a list of 139 city school districts, in the amount of taxes levied for school purposes. That list includes cities of 5,000 population or up.

Today a total of 12.40 mills is charged against local property owners for school purposes. The state average is 15.85 mills.

Tuesday Circleville school district voters will be asked to renew 6 mills of the 12.40 which expire January 1, and to approve an additional 3.5 mills for a 9.5 - mill total.

MEANWHILE, 577 of the state's

777 districts are asking for school operating levies. The average millage sought for all these districts is 5.78 mills. If most of them are approved the state average will be considerably more than the present 15.85 mills.

Thus Circleville school levies will still remain beneath the state average.

Circleville's enrollment at the start of this year was 2,728. That ranks the city 76th in the state among the 139 cities. Of the 62 cities with school population less than Circleville's, only seven have provided less millage for school purposes.

Those cities are Brooklyn, a suburb of Cleveland; Delphos, in Allen County; Hillsboro; Lockland, a suburb of Cincinnati; New Boston, a suburb of Portsmouth; St. Bernard, a suburb of Cincinnati; and Urichsville, in Tuscarawas County.

Every other city school district in Ohio has voted more school taxes for their children than Circleville.

It is apparent that school administrators have been extremely efficient in operation to provide our children with the education they have been receiving on the amount of money the voters allowed them.

There is no reason to believe they will be any less efficient in the future. However, they cannot provide an adequate education for an ever-growing school population without some increase in funds.

There is no question that Circleville voters must provide the small amount of money sought in the upcoming election. To do otherwise is foolish. Our children would suffer.

A vote "FOR" the levy is essential to the welfare of our community.

Circleville Science Fair Sets Rules

The science and mathematics teachers along with the administrators of the Circleville City School System unanimously agreed recently to sponsor a local Science Fair to be held on Mar. 11, 1960.

Scientific or mathematics projects of any student in the Circleville city schools will be placed on exhibit. Projects will be judged and awards given.
The Fair will be open to the public. The local Kiwanis Club is assisting with the Fair and awards.
The following rules have been set up for the 1960 Science Fair:

1. THE FAIR is open to all students in the Circleville City School System regardless of grade level or course of study.
2. Student projects from grades 1 through 6 will be entered in the Elementary Science Division; student projects from grades 7 and 8 will be in the Junior Division; and students in grades 9 through 12 will be in the Senior Division.
3. Any field of science, arithmetic, or mathematics may be used as a project topic. Related subjects of science, such as health, agriculture, conservation, automotive, and home economics provide good topics for scientific projects.
4. No group projects will be accepted for judging, although they are invited and will be displayed.
5. A student may enter not more than two projects. When two projects are entered, they must be unrelated to one another as to subject.
6. All projects must have the approval of a teacher in the Circleville school system in order to be exhibited.

7. INDIVIDUAL exhibits should stay as close to three running feet as possible. Depth of the exhibit should be limited to 30 inches. Exceptional cases must be reported to the Physical Lay-out Committee prior to the Fair.

8. Each exhibitor will be required to submit a registration card a week in advance of the Fair in order for space assignments to be made.

9. The names of the exhibitor's teacher and building are to be omitted from publicity in order that all awards will be to the individual exhibitor.

10. All exhibitors will be required to explain their project to the judges and to visitors of the Fair.

11. Judging will be done by representatives from industry, business and teachers outside the Circleville city schools. They will rate all projects as superior, excellent, good or satisfactory.

12. Each exhibitor will receive a certificate of award. Top winners in each of the three divisions will receive prizes.

PARENTS, as well as teachers and students, can help make this first Science Fair a success by encouraging their children to participate, officials said today.

There are, in all probability, specialists in these subject areas here in Pickaway County who would be happy to advise students in their work, they concluded.

Teays Valley School Officials Answer Bond Issue Questions

School officials of the Teays Valley School District today answered questions concerning the proposed $1,900,000 bond issue.

The proposed bond issue is for the construction and equipping of a consolidated high school. It will cost taxpayers 3.44 mills and will run for 20 years.

The bond issue will provide funds for construction and equipping of the high school only. The operating levy asked, which is 3.7 mills, will provide operating revenues to purchase instructional materials, pay salaries and meet fuel and utility bills.

Bond issues cannot be used for operating costs.
IF THE bond issue is defeated, a less expensive proposal will not likely be submitted later. Two reasons influence this statement.

They are, one, the present proposal represents what the Teays Valley school board believes the people of the district want in a high school building and without a clear-cut expression from the people, it should not be cheapened.

Secondly, costs are rising on every side, and from present indications, the sooner the building is started, the less it will cost.

If the issue is defeated, every effort will be made to make the present buildings suffice. But if defeat is incurred, it will mean costly, unsatisfactory and inefficient operation of the schools.

It will involve extreme overcrowding, limited curricula, possible double sessions and cross-transportation. It will mean makeshift schools until a bond issue is approved.

Although high taxes will result from passage of the bond issue, there is no other present means of providing school revenue in the Teays Valley District nor is there any immediate prospect of relief.

EVERYONE concerned deplores increased taxes to provide adequate educational facilities and all feel that real and personal property are bearing too great a burden of taxes.

But the school board feels that it is some comfort to know, that even with the contemplated rise in millage, taxes in Teays Valley still will be under the state average for rural districts.

The Teays Valley building will cost more than either the Westfall or Logan Elm building because of

HAD ALL THINGS IN COMMON

Scripture—Acts 4:32-35:16.

"FOLLOWING Simon Peter's
sermon at Pentecost, we have
the first description of the early church in Jerusalem. It was a beautiful picture, and so is this,
the second we are now to consider. Nothing but the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ could create such conditions."

I am quoting (although not exactly) the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M.
Smith's words in his opening remarks on today's lesson in Pelov-bet's Select Notes.

"And the multitude of them
that believed were of one heart
and of one soul; neither said any
of them that ought of the things
which he possessed was his own;
but they had all things common.

the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and
great grace was upon them all."
—Acts 4:32-33.

"Neither was there any among them that lacked; for as many
houses sold them, and brought the price of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the

feet dead at the apostles' feet.
His wife, Sapphira, not knowing
that her husband was dead, also told the lie to Peter, and she too
fell dead at his feet.

"And great fear came upon all
the church, and upon as many as heard these things."—Acts
5:11.

In his suggestions for teaching this lesson, the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes that all classes in the Sunday school
might be reminded that "in every church there are different types
of members—some help, some hinder, some throw themselves into the work of the church with all the energy and gifts they have, but some even use the church for selfish purposes. In our lesson today we have such a character as Barnabas, generous, helpful, full of
wisdom, and such people as Ananias and Sapphira, who were a hindrance to the church by their
selfish acts."

I think that it is important to impress upon the members of the classes that they should be truthful always. A person who gets disciples, if ye have love one to another."—St. John 13:35.

apostles' feet; and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need."—Acts 4:34-35.

Now we are introduced to a man named "Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted,
The son of consolation), a Levite,
and of the country of Cyprus,

having land, sold it, and brought
the money, and laid it at the
apostles' feet."—Acts 4:36-37.

He became a familiar figure
in the early church.

Now we will briefly tell the story of Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, who "sold a possession, and kept back part of the price," but "brought a certain
feet. But Peter said, Ananias,

why hath Satan filled thine heart
to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? While it remained,
was it not thine own? and after
it was sold, was it not in thine
own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart?
thou hast not lied unto men, but
unto God."—Acts 5:1-4.

Hearing these words, Ananias
fell dead. His wife Sapphira also died.

BOSTON (AP)—Nearly two million fires cost the United States
some 11,500 lives, 1 1/4 billion dollars in money loss and a new high
in the destruction of homes in 1958, the National Fire Protection
Assn., reported.

The over-all property loss was
a little less than that of the year
before. The association noted the approximate 1,994,000 fires logged
represented a reduction of 32,000
from 1957 and a decline of $1,100-000 in losses.

But, while total losses were checked slightly, the report said,
"more American homes went up in smoke than ever before in history."

or damaged 558,000 dwellings in 1958, causing a loss of about 309
million dollars. These totals
which are new highs, represent an increase of 28,000 in dwelling house fires and nearly 33 million dollars loss to home owners over the previous year.

'Canned' Laughter Right?

Deceptions that were practiced on some television quiz shows seem to have saddened rather than angered the public. A vigorous house-cleaning is in progress and at least one major network is beginning to wonder whether "canned" appreciation—delighted laughter, chuckles and enthusiastic applause—is "moral" after all.

In most instances it is not so much a matter of morality as of outright absurdity. Viewers hear these noise effects accompanying decidedly unfunny shows and wonder what they are about.

There may have been a time when they questioned whether their sense of humor was as sharp as it should be, but they have long since recovered from these doubts and now feel annoyed that mediocrity receives such undeserved tributes.

stamped with truth. No one ever doubted one of them.

"Now," the interrogator used to say, "for five thousand dollars, a gold-plated refrigerator and a week in beautiful Bermuda for two, who was the first President of the United States?"

There was a long and painful pause, then the answer came.

"Harry Truman!"

Comedian's Life Is Tragic

NEW YORK (AP)—Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy, for a dozen years one of the best-known husband-and-wife teams in show business, have decided to start parting company—but only professionally.

They jointly and cheerfully announced their impending career separation the other day.

"We're not going to be as much of a team in the future as we have been in the past," said Pete.

"Mary's enchanted with the theater, but I don't like long runs. I want to go more to writing and TV dramatic acting, not comedy."

Both pointed out that since 1947 they'd teamed mostly in night club comedy and song routines. Now they want to concentrate more on individual dramatic careers.

"Actually, I don't want to work terribly hard. I want to go to school and study archeology, foreign languages and dramatics," Mary said.

Pete looked surprised. "Almost 19 years we've been married," he marveled. "And I didn't even know she could say archeology."

But the light-hearted pair, who live in suburban New Rochelle with their two children, are still busy collaborating as a team on a couple of projects.

Both are starred with Ed Wynn in a program scheduled on the NBC-TV network on Nov. 27. And together they are writing a book, the story of their domestic life.

Pete—whose wife calls him "Peter Grim Hayes" when he's at the typewriter—is also finishing a second book, largely a collection of theatrical anecdotes.

One chapter is entitled "The Tragedy of Comedy."

"All the comedians who made America laugh for the last 50 years had tragic lives," he observed.

"My theory is that it all started in grammar school because they weren't physically attractive. So they chose another route to be admired."

"Most comedians are sad. It probably is because they're lonely; they can never be attractive romantically," he said.

"Even the woman a comedian marries eventually comes to laugh at him rather than with him. Then, I feel, he becomes a more tragic figure than any dramatic figure—because he is so lost."

"The compulsion for him to go on making people laugh becomes almost psychotic. He's always on stage. There are people in the business world—the life of every party type—who do the same thing."

"The only cure is to stop trying to be funny all the time. Comedy is the hardest thing in the world to sustain anyway."

Top Men Should Be Teaching

Young people today, as ever, are problems to their parents, but for other reasons than formerly. Each generation makes its own confusions. In the 1930's, some became Communists and others New Dealers, mild reformers and seekers for social justice.

Today, there are squares with their noses to the grindstone, who, having despaired of doing much to this world, seek out its physical composition. There are the long hair and short hair musicians who eschew politics and economics but go far back to Bach to justify their imaginative cacophony. There are Beatniks and anti-Beatniks, both of whom are nihilistic in their perceptions—young people who want nothing but take everything that comes their way. Then there is the rather conservative person, one of whom writes to me as follows:

"...Today there is no commonly accepted set of values in this country on any subject whatsoever. 'Freedom' of thought and expression have been so absurdly over-emphasized that one is a square if one doesn't preface every opinion with a long line of maybes. Even scientific textbooks are being written this way."

"The only sin today, in academic circles, is having a partially closed mind. Yet disagree with a professor over some minor point of his pet theory, and you end up with an 'F'. This is also confusing. What did you go to college for? To learn something, or to learn how to think? Ask any honest looking student of today and he will answer that his only interest in school is passing the next test, no matter how much of a hypocrite he has to be to do so. Tough life, isn't it?"

This complaint I hear on all sides. An "A" student got a "D" on a test because she did not accept her instructor's point of view on a matter concerning which her father is a well-known expert. The instructor is not and could not be expert, but the instructor had the job and could do the marking. In my opinion, that instructor was a fool.

I was talking to a young lady who was saying things that she did not believe to be true. I asked her why. She replied that she did not dare get mixed up because if she did not parrot her professor she would get a bad mark. I suggested some well-established reading to another student; she replied that outside reading might confuse her and she would flunk her test.

The real problem here is not intellectual bigotry but physical and mental laziness. The instructor, having worked out the questions and the answers (sometimes it is done by a committee), does not want to be challenged by novelty, by the student who thinks things out for himself, who reaches another conclusion. Perhaps the instructor is not intelligent enough to capture a new idea or a new method.

For one of the greatest faults of our educational system, particularly in the best colleges and universities, is that the very top men usually devote themselves to research, or to money-making as experts, or to writing and re-writing textbooks. If they teach at all, it is to graduate students who do not really need such mighty men.

The great minds should teach freshmen, so that these boys and girls get an inspiring start. Often freshmen are taught by teachers who are intellectually not yet dry behind the ears, who are either working for a Ph.D. or have just received one, who are frightened to death that something might go wrong and that they will not get tenure which is so important to them.

Who suffers? The student is discouraged, disheartened, robbed. If a student comes from an excellent secondary school, the freshman year seems such a waste, for everything is repetitious and not as well taught. Of course, the young instructor has to start somewhere and to college administrators, it is probably regarded as sound for him to start at the bottom.

But the bottom is where the student should be most inspired to move forward, should learn work methods, and should learn how to think. To think well, it is necessary to debate, to argue, to fall on one's face intellectually. It is necessary to discover that wisdom requires enormous knowledge to support its conclusions. A freshman does not get it from another kid who is called an instructor.

"Helen, you forgot to defrost the refrigerator!"

Latest Medical Steps

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

New drugs and new forms of older drugs are making medical news these days. Our regular monthly review of medical advances concerns several of them.

There is a new high-potency injectable form of steroid drug for use in treating shock and other emergency conditions and in controlling a wide variety of skin diseases.

It is reportedly especially useful in cases where rapid response is desired or where long doses of oral drugs over a long period of time would be required to produce the same results.

It is intended for use in acute conditions and emergencies such as hypersensitivity, most skin conditions with an allergic component, shock which does not respond to standard measures, overwhelming infections and the failure of adrenal glands to produce hormones necessary to life.

A new antidepressant drug for treatment of endogenous or true depression reportedly produces significant elevation of mood and dispels characteristic symptoms of true depression such as insomnia, nervousness and poor appetite in a number of cases.

Development of three new cortisone-like drugs of enhanced potency was reported recently.

The compounds, identified as 6 alpha-fluoro-16 alpha-methyl corticoids, might prove superior to those presently in use in the treatment of skin and allergic diseases, rheumatoid arthritis and blood disorders.

The compounds belong to a class of hormone drugs known by doctors as corticosteroids.

Ever since the isolation of cortisone 10 years ago, chemists throughout the world have been seeking the ideal corticosteroid, one with great potency in controlling inflammation and with no adverse side effects.

One of the new compounds is reportedly 700 times as potent as hydrocortisone.

Another new drug is reported successful in relieving muscle and joint pain. The compound is a combination of muscle relaxant and pain reliever.

In some ways it appears to modify the central perception of pain. It differs from morphine, however, in that it does not interfere with the body's natural defense mechanisms.

The drug has been used for treatment of cerebral palsy. Of course, it is available only through a doctor's prescription and should be used only under his guidance.

Question and Answer

Mrs. G. R. H.: Can you tell me how to prevent jealousy in children?

Answer: Jealousy in children can usually be minimized by treating the children equally and making every effort to avoid favoritism or special affection for any child. Usually this is a passing phase. In many cases the parents are at fault consciously or unconsciously. In severe cases, psychiatric consultation may be needed.

Middletown To Abandon Colorful Mall

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Middletown is abandoning its downtown pedestrian shopping mall but it may be restored permanently later.

The mall, from which vehicular traffic was banned, was set up the first of September on a 30-day trial period which later was extended until Nov. 1.

The city commissioners agreed to abandon it on suggestion of the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce which had proposed the mall.

A long-range planning program suggested by the merchants would call for improvements in public and private transportation, construction of roads around the central downtown area for through traffic, additional parking facilities, removal of blighted areas and solution of the problem of servicing and supplying stores as well as establishment of a permanent mall.

City officials said the principal objection to the mall was the parking problem.

Michigan GOP, Williams Plan Joint Program

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Republican leaders of the Michigan Legislature have agreed to share responsibility for working out an emergency tax program to solve the state's latest cash crisis.

The crisis was brought on by a State Supreme Court decision last week invalidating a one per cent use tax which the Legislature added to Michigan's three per cent sales tax.

Williams and 20 legislative leaders conferred for an hour and a half Tuesday in an attempt to get started on a stopgap tax program. All they could agree on was a pledge of mutual responsibility.

This was interpreted to mean that any tax plan adopted would be regarded as a bipartisan creation.

The conference made no headway in shaping a specific tax program.

The dispute between the governor and Republican legislative leaders has centered on the governor's demand for a tax on personal income and corporation profits, and Republican insistence on an increase in the sales tax.

Utah Young GOP Vote Embarrasses Governor

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Utah Gov. George D. Clyde, a Republican, and former GOP Congressman William A. Dawson addressed a small group of Young Republicans.

After the speeches, the Young Republicans were polled on their choice of a governor.

The other 13 went to former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, who left the party in 1956 after he lost the nomination to Clyde in a party convention.

Mrs. F. C. Leasure entertained her family at dinner last Sunday as follows: Mr. and Mrs. William Kuhlwein (Emma Leasure) and son, Jimmie, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leasure and children, Ricky and Ann of Middletown.

When the Richard Leasures returned to their home Sunday evening, they took Mother Leasure with them for a week's visit.

Mr. Marvin Mitchell, president, had charge of the meeting of the Parent Teachers Assn. Tuesday evening, opening the meeting with prayer.

The Junior Band made its first appearance of the year, under the leadership of William Russell, and played three numbers.

It was decided to make the annual dues 50 cents per member and a recess was called for collection of the same. The new by-laws were then read and adoption was voted.

Program — Mr. William Russell, Mrs. Raymond Davis, Mrs. Jack Reisinger;

Hospitality — Mr. L. E. Hill, Mrs. Winston Hood;

Representative to the County Council — Mrs. Raymond Davis.

Mr. McCormick, Superintendent of Schools, spoke on behalf of the renewal of the tax levy, and Miss Jane Davis, junior, announced the Halloween Carnival to be held on Friday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Waller director of the Southeastern District PTA from Portsmouth, spoke on the benefits derived from belonging to the State organization.

Mr. William Russell showed a film on the Sixth Man, concerning the relation of school to the community.

Mrs. Raymond Davis introduced the five candidates who are running for election as members of the School Board: Charles Search, Francis Kelley, Carroll Minor, Mrs. Dwight Davis, and John A. Immell. The last one named is up for re-election.

At the close of the meeting everyone adjourned to the cafeteria where refreshments were served.

MRS. GOLDEN Minser returned to her home on Monday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Sylvia Kennedy in Columbus. While there they drove to Saint Ignace, Michigan, to see the Mackinac Bridge which is sometimes called the "Eighth Wonder of the World".

The Yo-Ma-Co Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church held a Halloween Party for their own group Saturday in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Winston Hood and Mrs. Ernest Kline had charge of decorations making use of many pumpkins and corn stalks.

One of the most hilarious events of the evening was getting into the Hall by means of a Ghost Walk, going up one flight of stairs and down another, in the dark, beset by many pitfalls such as walking over bed springs.

Arriving in the Hall, they were kept entertained by many games — most of them team relay games.

Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. John Francis won the prizes

The refreshments were — you guessed it! doughnuts and cider.

Enjoying the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. John Francis, Mrs. Ernest Kline, and the Rev. and Mrs. Cowdrick.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sunderland over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Andrews of Dayton.

MR. AND MRS. Lloyd Evans returned last week from a 10-day trip through the Southern states, going down through Tennessee and home by way of Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Congrove (Peggy Evans) stayed at their home to take care of Terry during their absence.

The high school will hold its annual Halloween Carnival, Friday from 7 to 10 o'clock. As usual it will be sponsored by the Junior Class with Miss Mildred Wertman as class adviser.

The costume parade will be led by the King of the Carnival Danny Vollmar, a junior, and the Queen, Roberta Rickabaugh, a senior, with prizes for costumes. There will also be a little King and Queen, Mike Sims and Vickie Metzger, from the first grade.

There will be many games and contests; a cake auction, a flower show, a jack-o-lantern contest, a corn display, a sale of articles donated by merchants in Kingston, Circleville, and Chillicothe — to name a few attractions.

For those who come masked, there is no admission.

Guests for dinner on Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and children, Charles and Mary of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and children, Johnna and Robert, of Grove City, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and son Samuel of Kingston.

MARIS, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jende received his appointment in the Spring, and left July 7 for his assignment. As anticipated, it is a rugged life, but Maris seems to have what it takes.

Skin Disorder Cure Is Seen In New Pills

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Many persons once spent thousands of dollars over long periods of years trying to get rid of such uncomfortable and embarrassing diseases as scalp ringworm and athlete's foot.

Today, says Dr. J. L. Pipkin, a dermatologist of San Antonio, Tex., such skin disorders can be cured in a few days at a cost of about $20 for pills.

The medicine is griseofulvin, a new drug for fungus diseases. Pipkin and others among more than 200 physicians from the United States and 11 foreign countries described it today as the greatest medical discovery since penicillin.

The physicians were here to attend a symposium sponsored by the University of Miami. A year ago, Dr. Harvey Blank of the university first gave griseofulvin to a human patient and got a cure after all else had failed.

His announcement that he had cured 30 patients without a failure and without any unfavorable reaction caused a sensation.

Given in pill form, griseofulvin has shown such dramatic results that Johnson & Johnson's laboratories has gone into mass production to satisfy the demand. The drug is available only by prescription.

meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Garden Club which met at the home of the president, Miss Gertrude Senff, on Monday evening. Mrs. F. B. Mowery was assisting hostess. One guest, Mrs. Mary Edwards of Chillicothe, was also welcomed.

New program booklets were distributed by Mrs. Marvin Jones, the chairman of the program committee. Miss Senff gave to each member a garden note book, in which they may keep interesting items during the year.

There was an exhibit of Autumn Witchcraft which was an arrangement in autumn colors brought by the members. Winners in this display were 1. L. E. Hill, 2. Mrs. L. E. Hill and 3. Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Jones and Mr. Hill then conducted an analysis of each arrangement explaining the good and weak points in each, according to the accepted method of scoring.

A silent plant auction was held, to which the members had contributed plants. They were especially fortunate in receiving a number of plants donated by Mrs. Mowery who is leaving soon for Florida.

A dessert course was served by the hostesses. On each tray was a tiny wax pumpkin filled with varicolored small chrysanthemum blooms and evergreen.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: We are two girls with a problem. There is this girl at school who has a terrible reputation. And she won't leave us alone. Everywhere we go she is right behind us. She hangs around our locker and tries to eat lunch with us.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Be kind to her. She needs it. Showing this unfortunate girl common courtesy when she latches onto you will not damage your reputations. It is not necessary to cultivate her friendship outside of school. But when she seeks you out, treat her as you would want to be treated if you were in her unhappy shoes.

DEAR ABBY: What is the matter with our young people today? I never forget the young people in our family on birthdays, confirmations and all special occasions. I don't expect them to reciprocate because many of them cannot afford to—but it is too much to expect a "thank you" note?

After a lapse of much time, I usually wind up writing to find out if they ever received my gift. Then I get a letter from their parents asking me to please forgive the young folks because they are "so busy." Would you please give me your opinion of this?

—DISGUSTED RELATIVE

DEAR DISGUSTED: No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks. Anyone who is old enough to print his name can sign a "thank you" note. If parents took the time and effort to teach their children this courtesy when they were very young they would not have to apologize for them later.

DEAR ABBY: I am expecting my first baby within the next few weeks. This is my problem:

I want to name my baby (if it's a boy) "BURTON JUNIOR" after my husband. But my husband has been married before and he already has a son named "BURTON JUNIOR" after him.

Would it be all right to have another "BURTON JUNIOR"? I suppose this would cause a lot of confusion because the first BURTON JUNIOR lives in the same block with us, but you have no idea how much I want to name this baby after my husband.

—EXPECTING

DEAR EXPECTING: Name the baby something else. Your block is already "over Burton'd."

Tremendously Wealthy Lady Dies in Strict Austerity

NEW YORK (AP)—Widowed Lillian Timken, wife of one of the founders of the Timken Roller Bearing Co., Canton, Ohio, in earlier years with her husband had 13 servants.

When she died Saturday in her 24-room Fifth Avenue apartment, her only companion was a small Doberman called Stormy.

During the last decade of her life, she immersed herself day-by-day deeper into a shabby, twilight world, dust and shadows obscuring the beauty of great art treasures that surrounded her.

When the roller bearing magnate died 10 years ago, he left a net estate of nearly seven million dollars.

When Mrs. Timken died Saturday at age 78, the curtain was raised slightly to shed some light on the self-imposed austerity of a tremendously wealthy woman who nonetheless, counted every penny and boasted:

"You can't fool this girl."

The handyman in Mrs. Timken's building, Otto Winterspan, got an occasional glimpse of the widow over her last year. He recalled:

"I went into the apartment every so often and the old lady would meet me, always dressed in the same old, shabby bathrobe. There was a good inch of dust around the entire 10th floor where she lived."

The feeble light in Mrs. Timken's apartment came from begrimed windows and weak light fixtures. Winterspan said she restricted herself to 15-watt bulbs, as against the 75 or 100-watt bulbs used in ordinary lighting fixtures.

In the apartment hung beautiful works of art of great value. She willed them to Washington and New York galleries.

"There were times when those

big paintings—some of them were 15 feet long—would drop to the floor," Winterspan related. "She'd ask me to replace the plaster and rehang the pictures. There were lots of pictures there, some on the walls, others on the floor propped up against the wall and covered with dirt. . . .

"As soon as I finished my work, out I went. She just wanted to be by herself. Once I got a look at her television set. It was in a sort of den, the room where they found her dead on Saturday. Well, that television set had the smallest screen I ever saw. It was only about three inches or maybe five inches square. . . .

"There are 22 tenants in that building but I don't think one of them ever knew or spoke to her in recent years. The only people she let into the place were a lawyer, an accountant and a nephew."

A chauffeur-driven Cadillac bore Mrs. Timken on shopping trips, from which she returned with paper bags full of groceries. Said a neighbor:

"We figured it was canned goods, food that she lived on. Funny thing though, we saw a lot of that stuff go in but we never saw any of the empty cans go out. She must have saved everything."

Another who remembered Mrs. Timken was Edward Pollack, owner of a neighborhood cigar store. Every morning he had a newspaper delivered to her door, billing her at the end of the month. He said:

"One time she called me and said I charged her for one paper too many. She said she used to run a big business and she kept a record of those papers on her calendar. She told me, 'You can't fool this girl.'"

BROOMHALL, Pa. (AP) —

"Dear Mom:

"I am doing this because I love you and Daddy. I know how much all these things are going to cost and I know we don't have that much money that would pay for Daddy.

"So I'm going to get a job and give you every penny until Daddy is completely well.

only used them as an excuse to get out and get a job somewhere.

"Please don't worry about me. I'll be all right. Judy is coming with me. I went to confession this afternoon and I'm going to communion tomorrow for Daddy. He'll be all right and well. I'll see to that.

"Love, Ann."

Ann Shields, 15, a pretty brown-haired high school freshman scratched out the note and left it on a living room couch the night of Oct. 10. She hasn't been heard from since.

Her mother, Mary, between visits to the Bryn Mawr Hospital to visit the ailing father, James, keeps a vigil at the telephone, hoping and praying Ann will call. Mrs. Shields said that the Judy referred to in the note was Judy Treacy, also 15, a neighbor who vanished with Ann.

"Judy called her mother yesterday," Mrs. Shields added, "and said that she and Ann were living with friends and that Ann was working in New York."

Mrs. Shields explained that her husband, a school custodian, was operated on Oct. 7. She said that part of a lung was removed.

"He had been asking for Ann," Mrs. Shields related. "He'd wished that there was some way we could get a message to Ann to tell her to come home. That we'd forgiven her."

Ashland Is Study Center For City Parking Problems

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP) — This north-central Ohio community of 17,000 has become the host city for delegations of mayors and municipal authorities arriving almost daily for a first-hand look at the way Ashland has handled its parking problems.

The city government of Ashland has come up with a plan that has allowed it to build four rambling off-street parking lots near its downtown business center and fight off the economic paralysis threatened by shopping centers in outlying areas without using one cent of tax money or pledging the credit of the city.

The bonds can be paid only with revenue from the meters on each of the 578 parking spaces in the new lots.

Meter revenue in excess of the $375,000 for payment of the 21-year, 4.59-per cent bonds will be used to finance additional off-street lots, the developers of the program say.

Two of the four new lots are immediately adjacent to the business center. The others are one or two blocks away. The two outlying lots can hold 294 cars and are metered to attract store clerks, professional people and others who normally would park their cars in the downtown area throughout the day. Rates in these lots are five cents for two hours, 10 cents for five hours and 25 cents for 10 hours.

The two close-in lots are metered to encourage a more rapid turnover of shoppers and other visitors to the business district. They can hold 148 cars and are metered at five cents for an hour, 10 cents for two hours and 25 cents for five hours.

In addition, one 36-car section of a close-in lot has a one-hour parking limit.

Ashland Mayor Don T. Hostetler explains that the lots are placed and metered so that the "prime parking area" will have a rapid turnover and can be used by a maximum number of shoppers, while at the same time providing adequate parking for downtown workers.

The city government is now in the process of developing a series of street extensions that will complete a parking route that will completely circle the business district and pass by the entrances and exits of each of the off-street lots.

The history of the parking program in Ashland began in 1951 when its Chamber of Commerce began a program of encouraging off-street parking. In 1955 two lots were leased and marked off for free parking.

But the supply of parking spaces was far below the demand and in the spring of 1956 Ashland merchants and businessmen participated in a local survey asking if the public would be willing to pay a small amount for parking if about 50 per cent more off-street parking would be provided. More than 89 per cent said they would.

In January 1957 City Council approved a recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce that an engineering firm be hired to conduct a professional off-street parking survey of Ashland. The firm conducted surveys in February and June 1957 and presented its recommendations in the fall of 1957.

The local real estate board assisted in this survey by making committee property appraisals. It also handled the actual options for the city after the necessary ordinances were passed.

tion began in April 1959. The lots were dedicated Oct. 8.

Ashland merchants report a favorable public response to the new lots after an initial flurry of concern over the additional meters. Traffic reportedly is moving more smoothly through the downtown area and the business climate is improving. Most important there is now space available in the "prime" location areas.

The city government and the merchants are taking further steps to make parking more convenient for visitors. Parking meter violation tickets are in the form of envelopes in which the fine—25 cents—is sealed and then dropped in one of many collection boxes spotted around the parking areas. The local Retail Merchants Council has purchased change-making machines which have been installed in weather-proof boxes in each of the lots.

58 Candidates Seek Twp. Posts

Twenty-four persons seek election to 15 available Pickaway County township clerk posts and 34 persons have filed for an available 15 township trustee offices in Tuesday's off-year general election.

Township trustee and clerk candidates unopposed in the election will automatically assume office Jan. 1, 1960, regardless of the election's outcome, since no write-ins are allowed in a general election except where no candidate appears.

Township officials automatically elected are:
Pickaway Twp. — Lawrence J. McKenzie, Route 1, clerk, and Edgar Harral, Route 1, trustee;

Circleville Twp. — Harry E. Lane, 449 Half Ave., clerk; Walnut Twp. — Mrs. Faye Sowers, Route 1, Ashville, clerk, and Ernest Barr, Route 2, Ashville, trustee;

Madison Twp. — Charles McCray, Route 1, Ashville, clerk, and Wayne E. Brown, Route 1, Groveport, trustee, and Washington Twp. — Thomas L. Beavers, Route 4, clerk. All unopposed persons named above are incumbents.

Mrs. Grace M. Oesterle, New Holland, is unopposed in Tuesday's election and will automatically assume the Perry Twp. trustee board clerk's post in January.

She replaced her late husband's place on the ballot. Her husband, Kenneth Rae, died October 12. He was running for reelection.

A state statute allowed Oesterle's nominating committee to name someone in his place on the ballot. Mrs. Oesterle was named and accepted.

THE SALT CREEK Twp. trustee board clerk's post is "up for grabs" due to the resignation of Robert Hinton, who was named manager of the local State Liquor Store in May and by law was forced to give up any political office.

Running for Hinton's position are Carl I. Fry, Tarlton, Charles E. Parker, Route 1, Kingston, and Francis J. Fraunfelder, Route 4.

The race for Salt Creek Twp. trustee is the most heated of the county's 15 townships. Donald E. Strous, Route 2, Laurelville, the incumbent who was appointed January 1 to replace newly-elected County Commissioner Charles Morris Jr., has four opponents.

They are E. Frank Schooley, Route 1, Kingston; R. D. Miller, Route 4; Ralph E. VanFossen, Tarlton, and Lloyd E. Spung, Route 4.

Jackson Twp. incumbent clerk, Ellis List, Route 1, Williamsport, has opposition from Charles H. Steinhauser, Route 3. Scott Radcliff, Route 3, who is seeking reelection for Jackson Twp. trustee, has opposition from Paul S. Thompson, Route 2.

Incumbent S. E. Beers, Route 2, Ashville, faces opposition from Mrs. Nancy Warner, Route 2, Ashville, for Scioto Twp. clerk. Incumbent Lloyd L. Melvin, Route 2, Ashville, opposes John Beavers,

Universalists Get Ready for Duty in Space

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Universalists were concerned today not only about creatures on this earth—but in the spheres beyond.

Shaping up for the space age, the Church officially urged that any other world beings be treated decently—wherever and whenever they are encountered.

Laughter greeted the presentation of this resolution Wednesday night to approximately 600 church representatives. But they moved soberly ahead to make it Universalist policy and endorsed the "principle of international authority over the exploration of outer space."

The church also advocated United Nations membership for "all nations that will give assent to its charter provisions," including—as inferred in debate—Red China.

Only one other denomination, the United Presbyterian, has urged study looking toward seating Red China.

Salesman Collapses; Auto Smashes Poles

CLEVELAND (AP)—Walter Kublick, 44, a suburban Parma salesman, collapsed while driving his car Thursday and the vehicle went over a curb and smashed into two utility poles. Kublick, pronounced dead at Deaconess Hospital, may have had a heart attack. The coroner is to rule.

19 Seek Education Posts In Pickaway County Tuesday

A total of 19 persons are seeking 17 seats on Pickaway County boards of education in Tuesday's off-year general election. There is competition for a seat on the Teays Valley Board of Education, according to the Pickaway County Board of Elections.

There is no competition for seats on the Circleville Board of Education. Candidates are Robert L. Brehmer Jr., 895 Atwater Ave., Edward G. Grigg, 905 N. Atwater Ave., and Robert S. Elsea, Route 3.

Elsea and Brehmer are incumbents while Grigg is seeking the seat presently held by County Prosecutor Ray W. Davis, who is not running for re-election.

No competition appears in the race for the five-member Westfall Board of Education. All five incumbents are seeking reelection. Lack of competition in these races came as a surprise to observers close to the scene.

THOSE SEEKING reelection unopposed are: Dr. Paul E. Fenstermaker, Williamsport; Raymond Reiterman, Route 3, Mt. Sterling; Everett Grabbill, Route 1, Orient; Howard N. Stevenson, Route 3, and Hoyt Martin, Route 2, Williamsport.

Dr. Fenstermaker and Reiterman are running for two-year terms and Grabbill, Stevenson and Martin are seeking four-year terms. All five incumbent members were appointed to the consolidated board of education in the fall of 1957 by the County Board of Education.

One challenger appears in the five-seat race for the Teays Valley Board of Education. He is Everett R. Beers, Route 2, Ashville.

Beers offers competition to three school board incumbents. They are Dolphia Remy, Ash-ville; Harold Hines, Route 2, Ashville, and John A. Moss, Route 2, Ashville, all running for four-year terms.

Incumbent board members running for two-year terms are Orville Dountz, Route 1, Orient, and James W. Moody, Route 1, Groveport. All five incumbents were named to the Teays Valley Board in the fall of 1957 by the County Board of Education.

Two appointed members of the Logan Elm Board of Education are seeking election and are unopposed. They are David H. Bolender, Route 4, and Orley Judy, Route 1, Laurelville. They were appointed by the Logan Elm Board.

AN UNEXPECTED candidate filed for a seat on the County Board of Education. He is Troy McPherson, Route 1, Orient. He will face long-time incumbents, C. E. Dick, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, and Neil Morris, Route 1, Kingston.

There is a vacancy on the County Board of Education due to the resignation last year of Board president, Howard Huston, Stoutsville. He resigned because he moved to Fairfield County and became ineligible to hold a Pickaway County office.

Since Huston's term does not expire until 1962, the board must name a replacement. Some observers feel that the board is waiting until the Clearcreek Local School District, of which Stoutsville is a part, becomes part of Logan Elm and then it will rename Huston to his former position.

Sarah Moore Grimke and her sister, Angelina Emily, of South Carolina, were the first women to speak for abolition of slavery at public meetings open to both men and women.

DiSalle Promises More Help for Athens Hospital!

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's statewide tour of mental institutions took him to the Athens State Hospital, where he said he found conditions generally adequate.

"They are doing well with what they have to work with," the governor said after his tour with the superintendent, Dr. Hubert H. Fockler.

DiSalle described the Hocking Valley Hospital as one of the lost institutions in Ohio—"hard to visit and hard to get help."

Dr. Fockler told DiSalle the hospital, built to house 1,120 patients, now holds 1,529. He said additional psychiatrists, nurses and social workers are needed.

"I will try to get you some help," DiSalle said.

Parents Get Dim View Of Kid's Education

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Parents of high school and junior high pupils got a dim view of their children's education Wednesday night. The occasion was the first open house at the school building in four years. Some 300 parents showed up.

Just as the program got underway, the lights throughout the building dimmed and stayed dim, leaving the interior barely visible. After the program, municipal light plant officials said the incident was caused by the failure of a feeder line.

Textile Firms Recording an Excellent Year

Profit Increases Over '58 Said Little Short of Sensational

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — With the steel strike hogging the headlines, one very cheerful note in the economy has slipped by almost unnoticed.

That up-and-down industry—textiles—has been having one of its up years.

Profit increases over 1958 are little short of sensational. Unlike many other industries, its gain held at the same rate right through the third quarter.

All of 30 companies in various sectors of the textile industry show increases over a year ago. Combined, the earnings of the companies reporting for the first nine months so far total 90 million dollars, a whopping 127.5 percent over the 43½ million the same firms racked up in the first three quarters of 1958, when three of them were operating at a loss and many others were visibly limping.

And, unlike many other industries, the prospects for the final months of this year are bright. Most textile makers and finishers say the steel strike has had little effect on sales, even in the mill towns. Retail sales of textile products have generally continued lively.

The gain in sales this year has been a prime reason why the textile industry is making such a good showing. But there are others.

Fabric prices have stiffened this year, while the cost of raw materials, especially cotton, has been less.

And more of the sales gain has been carried over into profits. This is because the industry has freed itself of the inventory surplus that plagued it a year ago, and because there has been little tendency to overproduce this year—an ailment to which the mills are prone whenever sales in one line or another perk up.

And the textile mills are now benefitting from the new equipment installed in recent years which makes for cheaper production. Also there has been a lessening of competition as some marginal mills folded during the lean period.

Like everyone else, however, the producers still have problems. Most talked-about troubles at the moment are the imports of foreign textiles. Japanese cotton fabrics are deplored by the domestic mills because they usually carry lower price tags, reflecting lower wage scales in Japan.

Scioto To Vote On Ordinance For Zoning

Scioto Twp. residents will vote on a proposed zoning ordinance for the unincorporated portion of the township.

The Scioto Twp. trustees certified to the Pickaway County Election Board that it had created and established a township zoning commission on April 6.

The zoning commission submitted plans and maps and established rules and regulations for zoning the unincorporated part of Scioto Twp.

A hearing was held July 3 by the zoning commission and at that time it certified zoning plans and maps to the Scioto trustees, who held a hearing and adopted the zoning plans.

Scioto Trustees say the reason behind the zoning proposal is the tremendous influx of trailer courts sprouting up in the township, causing undue hardship upon township landowners and taxpayers.

Ann Sothern Fights Federal Tax Claims

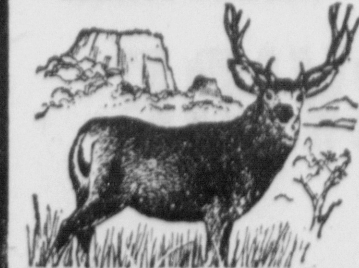

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ann Sothern, television star, says she only owes $7,120.94 in back taxes, not $722,322.44 as the government claims.

The dispute involves proceeds from Miss Sothern's sale of her part ownership of a TV series.

DETERMINING TO PROCEED WITH THE IMPROVEMENT OF PONTIUS LANE FROM THE SOUTH LINE OF LOT 32 TO BRINK DRIVE AND CERTAIN OTHER DESIGNATED STREETS BY CONSTRUCTING CURBS, GUTTERS AND STORM SEWERS AND TO DECLARE AN EMERGENCY.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Circleville, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is hereby determined to proceed with the improvement of the east side of Pontius Lane from the south line of Lot 32 to Brink Drive, the west side of Nicholas Drive from U. S. Route 22 to Brink Drive, Moats Drive and Brink Drive from Pontius Lane to Nicholas Drive and Griner Avenue from Moats Drive to Brink Drive by the construction of curbs and gutters and Pontius Lane from an existing storm sewer to Brink Drive and Moats Drive from an existing storm sewer to Griner Avenue by constructing storm sewers, all constituting one connected and continuous improvement, in accordance with Resolution No. 35-59 passed on July 7, 1959, and in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore approved and now on file in the office of the clerk.

Section 2. That all claims for damages resulting therefrom shall be judicially inquired into after the completion of the improvement, and the solicitor be and he is hereby authorized and directed to institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to inquire into such claims.

Section 3. That the whole cost of said improvement, less a one-fifth thereof and the cost of said improvement shall be assessed by the front foot upon the following described lots and lands, to wit:

All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the proposed improvement, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specifically benefited by said improvement, and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, and the serving of said notices, and cost of construction together with interest on notes and bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

Section 4. That the assessments go to be levied shall be paid in ten (10) annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be born by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessments in cash within thirty days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.

Section 5. That bonds of the City of Circleville shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount, equal thereto, and notes of said city shall be issued in anticipation of the issuance of such bonds.

Section 6. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement, not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expenses of any appropriation proceeding therefor, and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest thereon, and the cost and expenses of any such award, shall be paid out of General Fund.

Section 7. That the clerk be and he is hereby authorized and directed to advertise for bids for the construction of said improvement according to law.

Section 8. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure in that the improvement described herein is necessary for the public health, welfare and safety and must be constructed at the earliest possible date. This resolution shall, therefore, go into immediate force and effect.

ins. There will be only one space for each office on Tuesday's ballot. Candidates unopposed will automatically assume office.

All mayors and councilmen of the villages of New Holland, Williamsport, South Bloomfield and Ashville have opposition.

CLERK - TREASURER George D. Hamman is unopposed. Three of the six councilmen filed. They are Archie Rawlinson, Marvin L. Cook and Warren W. Wright.

Incumbent councilmen not filing their declarations of candidacy were Harold L. Fry, Donald Lee McDill and Warren E. Rhinesmith. None of Williamsport's incumbent members of its Board of Public Affairs filed.

They are Paul E. Chester, John W. West and the person named to fill Harry Hosler's position. Williamsport's three remaining council and board of public affairs seats will be filled by write-ins.

Ashville has competition only in the mayor's race. Incumbent mayor Richard Bozman is opposed by Vernon Luckett. Robert E. Glick is unopposed for Ashville clerk.

Orville Ruh, present clerk, failed to file. Ben B. Morrison, village treasurer, failed to file for reelection, making a write-in campaign necessary for this position.

The Ashville village council race poses a problem to lawmakers. There are two candidates appearing on the ballot where six spaces will appear for the six councilmen positions.

THEY ARE Virgil C. Waldon and John E. Little. Six candidates for council were ruled off the ballot by the County election board for having insufficient signatures on their group petition.

They were Richard Cook, Charles W. Morrison, Chester V. Gloyd, Paul F. Smith, Jack E. Lemon and George W. Forquer. Although Waldon and Little are the

only persons appearing on the ballot, they could be defeated if five or six other candidates receive more votes than they in Tuesday's election.

This is one of the rare times that a write-in candidate can defeat a person whose name appears on the ballot. If there were six candidates on the ballot they could not lose since there would be no empty spaces on the ballot for write-ins.

Ashville's incumbent members of its Board of Public Affairs are unopposed. They are William S. Plum, E. W. Seeds and Russell P. Hoover. Incumbent councilman, Donald W. Wean, did not file for reelection.

South Bloomfield will also pose an interesting election with two candidates for mayor and 12 for the six council seats. Incumbent Mayor Harold Tosca will be opposed by Arthur Deal.

B. B. Bray filed for South Bloomfield clerk. Present clerk, Mrs. Marcella Acord, did not file her petition. Bray and Clyde Michael were incumbent councilmen who did not file for reelection.

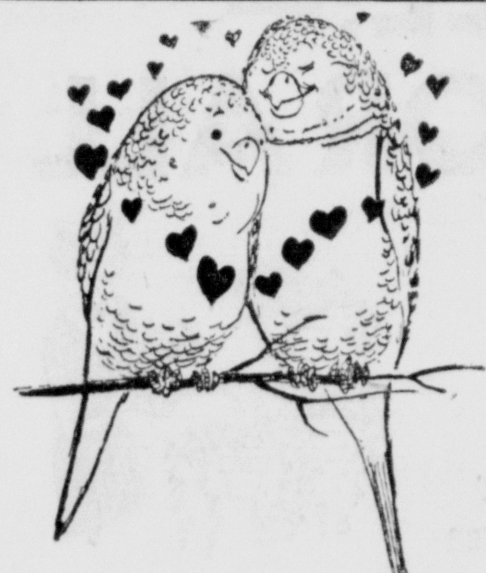

INCUMBENT councilmen filing were Sheldon Roof, Earl Roese, Harold Acord and Burt Cook. They will be opposed by Roger Roof, Lewis N. McCain, Harry W. Neff Jr., William Riser, E. W. Centofanti, Kenneth P. McDaniel, Paul E. Miller and Donald Brannon.

New Holland also has several candidates for mayor and village council offices. Incumbent mayor Joseph H. Gooley will be opposed by Joe E. Shaw and David L. Reed.

Present councilman W. F. Gillespie filed for clerk and the incumbent, Donald E. Adams, did not declare for reelection. Village treasurer, Richard W. Kirkpatrick, is unopposed.

Incumbent councilmen filing were Howard Garrison, Clarence Brown, Jesse J. Barnes, D. H. Roth and R. L. Stewart. Their opposition will be from Coyte W. Eckle and Claude Reed.

Its Board of Public Affairs finds only two members filing for reelection. They were Richard M. Tarbill and Chris Cross. Robert Melick filed in place of Richard Doyle for the third Affairs seat.

John Wayne Is Convinced He Can Make His Own Films

BRACKETTVILLE, Tex (AP)—"I've been a star for 30 years. I ought to be able to make a movie better than somebody's relative."

This was John Wayne's explanation of why he assumed full command of one of the most expensive movies of all time, "The Alamo." He is producer, director and star of the Texas epic, being filmed on the prairie 130 miles west of where the real battle took place.

Wayne was in good, confident form as he played field marshal to the huge cast and crew working in a permanent re-creation of the Alamo and 1836 San Antonio.

"We've got it made," he grinned. "I was never so sure of anything in my life."

His assurance has taken a concrete form: investment of his own money for the first time in his film career. It's reported he plunked two million into the enterprise. Texas moneybags O. J. McCullough and Clint Murchison are in for $ million or so apiece, and United Artists is putting up the rest.

"We'll spend 5 million on shooting the picture," Wayne remarked. "When you add my salary and the various deferrals, it will come to over seven. Overhead and other costs will bring it up to 11 million."

There was only one chink in his confident manner: his concern over Wayne directing Wayne.

So earnest is Wayne the producer that he gave Wayne the star the third best role in the picture. He plays Davy Crockett to Richard Widmark's Jim Bowie and Laurence Harvey's Col. William Travis.

"I have some important scenes early in the picture and I act as a sort of commentator throughout," he said. "But the real drama of the picture is the conflict between Bowie and Travis. They get the big scenes."

Rameses the Great of Egypt boasted that he had furnished at least 19 million ceremonial bouquets and ornamental plants to temples.

That it is deemed necessary to issue bonds of the City of Circleville in the principal sum of $16,578.00 in order to provide funds for the improvement of the hereinafter described streets by constructing curbs, gutters and storm sewers. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each; shall be dated approximately November 1, 1960, shall bear interest at a rate of not more than 6 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall mature in ten years from the date of issuance.

Section 2. That for the purpose of raising money in anticipation of the levy of special assessments, and in anticipation of the issuance of bonds in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for the improvement of the east side of Pontius Lane from the south line of Lot 32 to Brink Drive, the west side of Nicholas Drive from U. S. Route 22 to Brink Drive, Moats Drive and Brink Drive from Pontius Lane to Nicholas Drive and Griner Avenue from Moats Drive to Brink Drive by the construction of curbs and gutters, and Pontius Lane from an existing storm sewer to Brink Drive and Moats Drive from an existing storm sewer to Griner Avenue by constructing storm sewers, all constituting one connected and continuous improvement, in accordance with the legislation heretofore passed by the City Council with respect thereto, notes of the said City shall be issued in the amount of Sixteen Thousand Five Hundred Seventy-eight Dollars ($16,578.00), which shall be placed to the credit of this improvement fund.

Provided, however, that the appropriations hereinabove made for the said improvements are subject to the qualification that interest at the rate of four and one-half percent (4½%) per annum for the period prior to the collection of assessments to be levied has been included in said amount, and the amount necessary to pay said interest is hereby appropriated for the payment thereof and for no other purpose, and the amount above set forth shall be reduced by its proportionate amount for the payment of said interest.

Section 3. That said notes shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor, shall be dated November 1, 1959, and be due and payable November 1, 1960, shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 4½% per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of May, 1960, and the 1st day of November, 1960, and shall be delivered in such number and such denominations as may be requested by the purchaser of such notes. Proper interest coupons bearing a facsimile of the signature of the Auditor may be attached to and made a part of said notes. Principal and interest shall be payable at the office of City Auditor.

Section 4. After said improvements are completed and the cost thereof ascertained, Council shall by ordinance assess upon the benefited property in the manner provided in the legislation referring to said improvements and heretofore adopted by this Council the entire cost and expense thereof, less one-fiftieth (1/50) thereof and the cost of interest thereon, in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Code of Ohio, and shall authorize the issuance of bonds in anticipation of the collection of said assessments in amount substantially equal thereto, under the provisions of Section 153.31 of the Revised Code of Ohio. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds and any unexpended balances in the improvement fund remaining after the completion of said improvements shall be used for the payment of the notes authorized by this ordinance and for no other purpose.

Section 5. All assessments collected for the improvements and unexpended balances remaining in the fund, after the cost and expense of the improvements have been paid, shall be applied to the payment of the notes and the interest thereon until both are fully provided for. Thereafter, said assessments shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest thereon. In the event that said assessments are not levied or said bonds are not issued, there shall be levied upon all the taxable property in the City of Circleville, Ohio, a general and valorem tax sufficient to pay said notes and the interest thereon. A certified copy of this ordinance shall be certified to the County Auditor as required by law.

Section 6. Said notes shall be a full general obligation of the City of Circleville and the full faith, credit and revenue of said city are hereby pledged for the payment of both principal and interest of the note at maturity and in accordance with the laws and Constitution of the State of Ohio.

Section 7. That the Fiscal Officer of the City of Circleville is hereby directed to have said notes properly prepared and executed, to sell the same at public or private sale as provided by law, but for not less than par and accrued interest, and to deposit the proceeds in the City Treasury to the credit of the fund hereinbefore named for the purpose of paying the cost of said improvements, and for which purpose said money is hereby appropriated subject, however, to the appropriation for the payment of interest as contained in Section 2 hereof.

Section 8. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure in that the improvement described herein is necessary for the public health, welfare and safety and must be constructed at the earliest possible date. This ordinance shall, therefore, go into immediate force and effect.

Governor's New Sedan Expected in 2 Weeks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's air-conditioned sedan, purchased by donations from Democratic chairmen, will be ready in two weeks, Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said. The car will be given to the state as DiSalle would not accept it personally. The chairmen chipped in $4,800 for the vehicle and ordered it from Paul McDonough of Mount Vernon, Knox County Democratic chairman.

Who Do Some Collegians Gain while Others Flop?

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP) — Why do some college students succeed while others do not?

This is one of the many perplexing questions of human development probed year after year by the Fels Research Institute here.

Knowing more about human beings and the factors that shape human personalities, physiques and patterns of health has been the quest of the institute since it was founded 30 years ago.

Why do some students break under the pressures of attending college? What can cause a person's I.Q. to change dramatically during his lifetime? What are the factors which influence personality development?

"We use a longitudinal program to find out what happens to a person throughout his life," explained Dr. Lester W. Sontag, director of the institute. This means that a group of core subjects are periodically checked by the researchers to find out how they have changed from one year to the next.

The 375 persons selected for the original core group 30 years ago will be human guinea pigs for the rest of their lives.

About 45 of their children have now been enlisted for the program and are referred to as "second generation Fels children." Children remain in the project until they are 18 years old. Some 12 or 15 new subjects are added each year.

Subjects originally are selected from within a 12-mile radius of Yellow Springs. However, as they

The Fels staff is composed of about 45 persons, including doctors of medicine and philosophy, technicians, lab assistants and clerical personnel.

Researchers have freedom to express their scientific curiosity, according to Dr. Sontag. They work on various projects of their own choosing. Financial support comes from the Fels Fund of Philadelphia and the National Institute of Health.

The institute is not a part of Antioch College, but an occasional member of the Fels staff teaches a course there, and senior staff members are given faculty rank by the college.

Colonies of cats and albino rats also are used in the projects. Currently, preparations are being made to include a monkey colony in the research menagerie.

For some short-term projects, Antioch College students offer their services and are paid $1 an hour. Underway now is a project to determine how different people respond to the same emotional and physical stresses.

Students are subjected to a variety of stimuli. Their physiological responses such as heart beat, blood flow and pressure and respiration are recorded on sensitive machines.

The institute work, divided among four departments, is supervised by Drs. John I. Lacey, psycho-physiology; Jerome Kagan, psychology; Stanley M. Garn, physical growth, and Marvin Armstrong, biochemistry-physiology.

Broncos To Eye Homecoming At Alder Grid Battle Tonight

A rebounding Ashville eleven will take the field at 8 p. m. today to meet Jonathan Alder in the final contest of the season for both teams.

The battle will be played on the rough and tumble Pickaway County Fairgrounds' field. Ashville will have a double incentive for a victory over the Madison County powerhouse.

The Broncos have never defeated an Alder gridiron squad or basketball five and tonight is Homecoming. The annual ceremonies will take place before the game starts.

It also will be Dads' Night for the Broncos. They will be introduced at halftime. Alder sports a 2-4 slate with wins over Elm Valley, 48-14, and Greenville, 30-12, a team Ashville blasted 30-0 last Friday.

JONATHAN ALDER'S losses have been to Madison South, 28-14; West Jefferson, 48-0; Scioto Valley, 28-6, and Mt. Sterling, 20-14, in a heartbreaker. Alder lost in the last two seconds of play after going into the fourth quarter with a 14-0 lead over Sterling.

Offensive leader for the Plain City lads is Ron Wilcox, their top scorer and quarterback. The throwing demon has two of the finest ends in the Darby Valley League to receive his passes.

They are Willis Cordial and Junior Thomas. Alder runs from a wing-T and a spread pattern from which they pass and lateral. The Plain City offense resembles in major degree with Ashville's offensive attack.

Defensively Alder favors an umbrella defense — a four-man line, five linebackers and two safety men.

Ashville will be at peak strength with every man on the roster ready for their final contest of the year. The McNeal brothers, who have been cut for several weeks are back and Jimmy McNeal, the Broncos leading ground gainer with 247 yards, will be a welcome sight.

Ashville downed Amanda in a practice game this week, 12-6, to partially avenge its Football Pre-view loss. Head coach, Russell Gregg, feels that his squad has a revived spirit and could make it two in a row if his offensive blocking is as sharp as in the Greenville game.

Gregg said today his ball club will not run the belly series due to Alder's 285-lb., 14-year-old center who is immovable. The largest student body in the DV League boasts a 1,000 lb. line.

Canton's United Fund Hits All-Time High

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Greater Canton's United Fund drive collected $1,070,628, the highest total in its history. However, the 10-day drive which ended Thursday night attained only 97.7 per cent of its $1,105,647 goal and fell short for only the first time in seven campaigns.

Jamin Poised For Lush Trot

3 Ohio Horses Due To Test French Star

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Jamin, the artichoke-loving French horse who already has accomplished the improbable, shoots for the darn-near unbelievable at Hollywood Park Saturday. He'll try to wind up the American Trotting Classic with a second straight victory in the $75,000 event.

The 6-year-old importation won the first leg of the one-mile feature last Saturday and a second victory would conclude the series.

Victory would also be the fourth without a loss in this country for the French horse—who has a liking not only for artichokes but also for red ear muffs, which he wears to shut out the noise.

Jean Riad drove Jamin in the first leg in 1:59.4-5, fastest time in the Western Harness Racing Assn. meeting—and did it racing on the outside all the way.

Mme. Olry Roederer, champagne-maker who owns Jamin, arrived to see the second leg of the classic. She has never seen her pride win a race, simply because when a race is under way she steps out of sight.

Slated to race against Jamin are mostly the same horses who tried to beat him a week ago. Included are Senator Frost, the favorite last week, who ran a dismal seventh; Silver Song, Trader Horn, Charming Barbara, Steamin' Demon, Jean Laird, Darn Safe and an Italian horse, Jariolain.

Three of these are Ohio-owned. Senator Frost is the property of Wayne W. Galvin of Wilmington; Steamin' Demon is owned by George W. VanCamp of Circleville; and Jean Laird is owned by Eddie Cobb of Washington C.H.

New Holland Recreation Plan To Be Discussed on Nov. 4

Whether or not New Holland will have a community recreation center will be a decisive question at a public meeting scheduled November 4 at the NH Legion Hall.

All New Holland residents and interested persons are invited to attend the meeting which is slated to start at 7:30 p. m.

Plans for the recreation area and park were formulated by the New Holland Lions Club. The Lions are seeking additional help in efforts to carry the program.

Officials said the proposed park would be for the entire community. Following a series of meetings already held, interested groups listed the following conclusions:

1. An 11-acre tract of land at the north end of New Holland can be purchased for $5,000. A one-acre spring-fed lake is included in the site.
2. Tentative plans call for purchase and development of the park over a three-year period.
3. The project will need the full backing of the entire community, although nearly half of the purchase price of the land has been voluntarily pledged.

4. Present planning calls for a new corporation made up of officers and directors chosen at random from the community to manage and direct the development of the park.

5. The park as planned will include picnic tables and benches, fireplaces, a shelter house, ball diamond and eventually tennis courts or a swimming pool.

ALL RESIDENTS of the New Holland community are urged to attend the November 4 meeting to voice their opinions and further discuss the project.

ing on the project include Forrest Morris, president of the Lions Club, Edwin Frazier, Gene Doyle, Dean Drake and Mrs. James Doyle.

This-Is-It Grid Game Faces Bucks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's battered and bruised Buckeyes reach the "this is it" stage Saturday.

Coach Woody Hayes' green youngsters, injured in both pride and prestige by losing three of five games, must get by Michigan State's spirited Spartans if they are to salvage much from the current campaign.

Since they entered the Big Ten in 1913 the Bucks have finished last in the league only once, in 1947.

Ohio has never defeated Michigan State in three tries, and if the Bucks bow in this one they'll skid right into last - place tie with Iowa and Minnesota at 1-3 in the rugged circuit.

Dodgers Again Sign Alston as Manager

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Walter Alston will manage the Los Angeles Dodgers again next year.

While this may not be the most astounding development, there was a time this year when Alston's career was rumored heading into eclipse.

But such speculation had long since expired by Thursday, when the Dodgers announced that the foremost citizen of Darrtown, Ohio, will be back in 1960, with a raise.

Market Keglers Protect Lead

Ward's Market increased its lead in the Classic Bowling League at Circle D Recreation on the strength of a current 20-7 record.

High individual single game this week went to Mike Brown who rolled a 223. He also had high individual three-game series of 579.

Here are the current standings:

	Pts.	W	L
Ward's Market	28	20	7
Brunner Jewelers	22	16	11
General Electric	21	17	10
Blue Ribbon Dairy	20	15	12
Circle D Recreation	16	12	15
Ankrom Lumber	16	11	16
Jim Dandy Drive-In	11	9	18
Purina	9	8	19

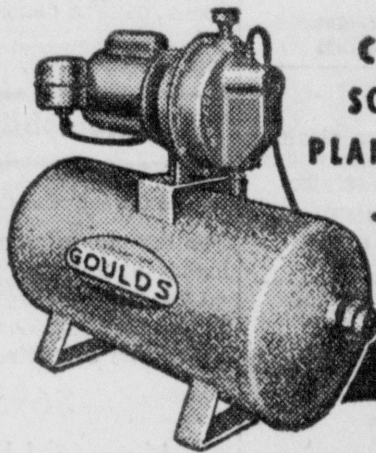

Bill Skowron, Yankee first baseman who suffered a broken wrist in mid-season, will be an instructor next winter at the Kissimmee, Fla., baseball school.

Amesville Housewife Faces Death Hearing

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Housewife Donna Lee Jago, 31, today faces arraignment here on a charge of first-degree manslaughter in the fatal shooting of her husband, Adrian, 32, of nearby Amesville. Authorities said Jago was shot early Thursday with a 12-gauge shotgun after a domestic quarrel in the back yard of their farm home.

Today's Living Is Blamed for Heart Trouble

CLEVELAND (AP)—Modern man eats heartily, avoids physical exertion and thereby runs the risk of heart ailments, hardening arteries and other degenerative diseases, says a New York doctor.

Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, head of Winthrop Laboratories, says that despite today's easy living, man goes right on eating as he did when brawn and muscle made the wheels of the world go round.

He addressed a conference on aging, sponsored by the American Medical Assn. and state medical societies of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Pennsylvania. Said Dr. Klumpp:

"We no longer tend furnace or carry out the ashes. We drive a block for a newspaper, instead of walking.

"Yet we are more tired than our fathers or their fathers used to be when they ran, walked, chopped wood, shoveled snow, dug ditches, pitched hay and did all the physical chores so abhorrent to the mid-century."

When a person is immobilized in bed, he pointed out, muscular and circulatory deterioration occurs in a short period of time.

For health and a long life, he told the 500 persons attending the conference, people should employ bodily functions to capacity.

Stark County Sheriff Dies At Age of 51

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—One of Ohio's best known sheriffs, Harry W. Grossglau, of Stark County, died of a heart attack Thursday night. He was 51.

Grossglau, who had suffered two previous heart attacks, was watching a bowling match in a Mahoning Road bowling alley when he slumped to the floor. Oxygen was administered but efforts to revive him failed. He was pronounced dead at Mercy Hospital.

A Republican, Grossglau was elected sheriff in 1949 and was serving his third term. Prior to that he served as a Stark County deputy sheriff and was one of the original patrolmen of the Ohio Highway Patrol.

He was a past president of the Buckeye Sheriffs' Assn. and was named the outstanding sheriff in Ohio by that group in 1954. At his death, he was a member of the National Sheriffs' Assn. board of governors.

Grossglau was a leader in getting standard uniforms and car markings in Ohio sheriff's departments.

133-Year-Old Grave Marker Is Uncovered

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—Police here are puzzled by a student's discovery of a 133-year-old tombstone near the Chardon High School football field. Police Chief John Bohl said the four-foot, 300-pound slab did not appear to have been dug up from a local cemetery. It bore this inscription:

"John Collins, died Jan. 8, 1826 at the age of 61. His wife, Fannie, died on August 11, 1832."

Important Test Looms for Tigers

Circleville's grid Tigers head for Franklin Heights tonight for an important South Central Ohio League test with the surging Falcons.

The Tigers may have to play without the services of Archie Ward, ace right halfback. The high-scoring speedster suffered an ankle injury in Friday's Paint Valley test and has been working without pads all week.

Ward practiced yesterday, but was slowed by a noticeable limp. To date he leads Tiger scoring with nine touchdowns and two extra points.

REGULAR Quarterback Dave Smith and Fullback Larry Hannans will be available and will be expected to carry much of the burden. Freshman Garold Dade may get the starting call at left half. Pat Rooney and Alex Cook have been working at right half, along with Chuck McDowell who may be pressed into service at both half-back posts. Back Gary Cook will be available as needed.

Tackle Dave Huffer was back at practice yesterday after being out of school part of the week with the flu. John Williams may get the call at the tackle post, although he suffered a pulled leg muscle in practice this week.

Franklin Heights, all set to observe Homecoming, will be a formidable foe for the Tigers. The Falcons did a good job in holding undefeated Greenfield to a 22-14 win last Friday.

The Falcons run from a T-formation and an unbalanced line. They pass often and rely on the power running of Fullback Bob Bapst.

The hosts will outweigh the Tigers with a lineup sprinkled with returning lettermen. Last year the FH outfit downed Circleville, 8-0, then went on to gain a share of the SCOL which ended in a three-way deadlock with Greenfield and Washington C. H.

New Highway Cost Formula To Aid Small Ohio Cities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A new highway cost assessment formula will aid smaller Ohio cities and villages, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle announced Thursday.

A Highway Department directive revises the formula by which villages and cities of less than 100,000 population are charged for highway projects.

Major construction, interstate projects, resurfacing and bridge repair are included in the new rates.

The latest policy assesses cities of 5,001 to 21,000 population five including federal aid projects in municipalities. Other rates: 21,001 to 42,000 pay 10 per cent; 42,001 to 100,000 15 per cent, and over 100,000, 25 per cent.

The old formula assessed cities under 38,000 the cost of plans plus five per cent of remaining project costs. Other rates were: 38,000 to 100,000, 15 per cent, and over 100,000, 25 per cent.

The new population groupings are based on Ohio Department of Health census estimates.

The new formula for resurfacing is: 5,001 to 21,000, 20 per cent; 21,001 to 42,000, 30 per cent; 42,001 to 100,000, 40 per cent, and over 100,000, 50 per cent. The previous breakdown was 5,000 to 15,000, 20 per cent; 15,000 to 50,000, 35 per cent, and more than 50,000, 50 per cent.

The state, city and county all will share in bridge repair. The formula is the same as in major construction with counties paying 25 per cent in all cases and the state the remainder.

Free Service On Turnpike Is Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—Motorists using the Ohio Turnpike are entitled to free emergency service in event of mechanical breakdowns, the Cleveland Automobile Club maintains.

In a letter to the Ohio Turnpike Commission Thursday, the CAC pointed out that the New York Thruway Authority provides limited free emergency service.

A motorist using the Ohio toll road "is a captive and in case of breakdown is left stranded without the privilege of the selection of service for his car," said Meryl Q. Allyn, general manager of the auto club.

Turnpike tolls of approximately 1½ cents a mile are equivalent to a nearly 20-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax, on the basis of an average 15 miles to the gallon, Allyn said.

Tolls entitle a motorist to "something more than dangerous long delays, poor service and exorbitant fees when they have a breakdown," Allyn said, adding:

"Studies we have made . . . indicate that average service costs on the toll road are nearly twice that charged on adjacent free roads and average waits for service are approximately one hour and range up to 4½ hours." per cent for major construction,

Stassen Feels Confident of Win Tuesday

But the Democrats don't give him much of a chance. They say he'll still be running after election day. They've already held a pre-election victory parade.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower, has taken plenty of lumps in politics the last few years. But he is regarded in many circles as a sturdy contender.

The Democrats held their traditional parade and rally Wednesday night in the 26th Ward in south Philadelphia.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth, endorsed by all three Philadelphia daily newspapers, has the full backing of Pennsylvania's Democratic national committeeman, Gov. David L. Lawrence, and Philadelphia's Democratic chairman, Congressman William J. Green Jr. Latest registration figures list 531,000 Democrats and 413,083 Republicans.

Dilworth is running on his first-term record. He has repeatedly charged that Stassen is seeking to be mayor only to further his real aspiration to become president of the United States.

Stassen promises if he is elected mayor he will stop what he calls a heavy migratory flow of Negroes from the South to Philadelphia. He has charged that under the Dilworth administration crime has spread and unemployment increased.

Prexy Tips Newsboy; Newsboy Assists Prexy

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Waynesburg College president's nicker tip to his newsboy each week was returned with dividends Wednesday.

The newsboy, Rickey Stafford, 13, gave a $5 donation to President Paul R. Stewart for the school's new science building.
